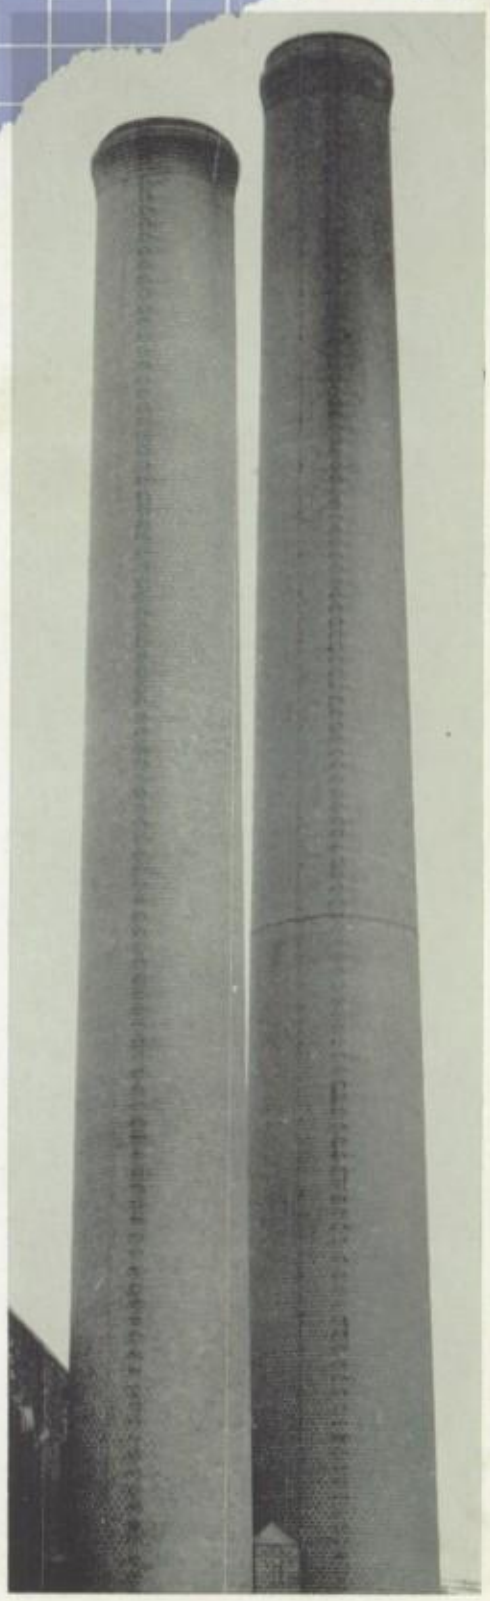
PROGRESS



We like to think of the universal constant, "change," when applied to man's civilization, as progress, and, in a general sense, this is true. Man's earliest changes came only as the result of accident or necessity. Today, however, change has become a part of man's design. As such, change, the deliberate advancement toward specific goals, is progress. That there is no specific directing body, does not mean that progress has no leadership. Since man is the creation of a supreme being, his goals are divinely fixed.

CINCINNATI

PROGRESS IN THE ARTS

We are a forward-looking school. Much of the progress here is by design. In art, as in other areas, we hold to the tried, the good, the enduring, while we examine the new, which only time and wisdom can test.

Art, at Central, will receive a big advance with the installation, next year, of commercial art department as a major field of study. Many students have demonstrated an interest in this field.

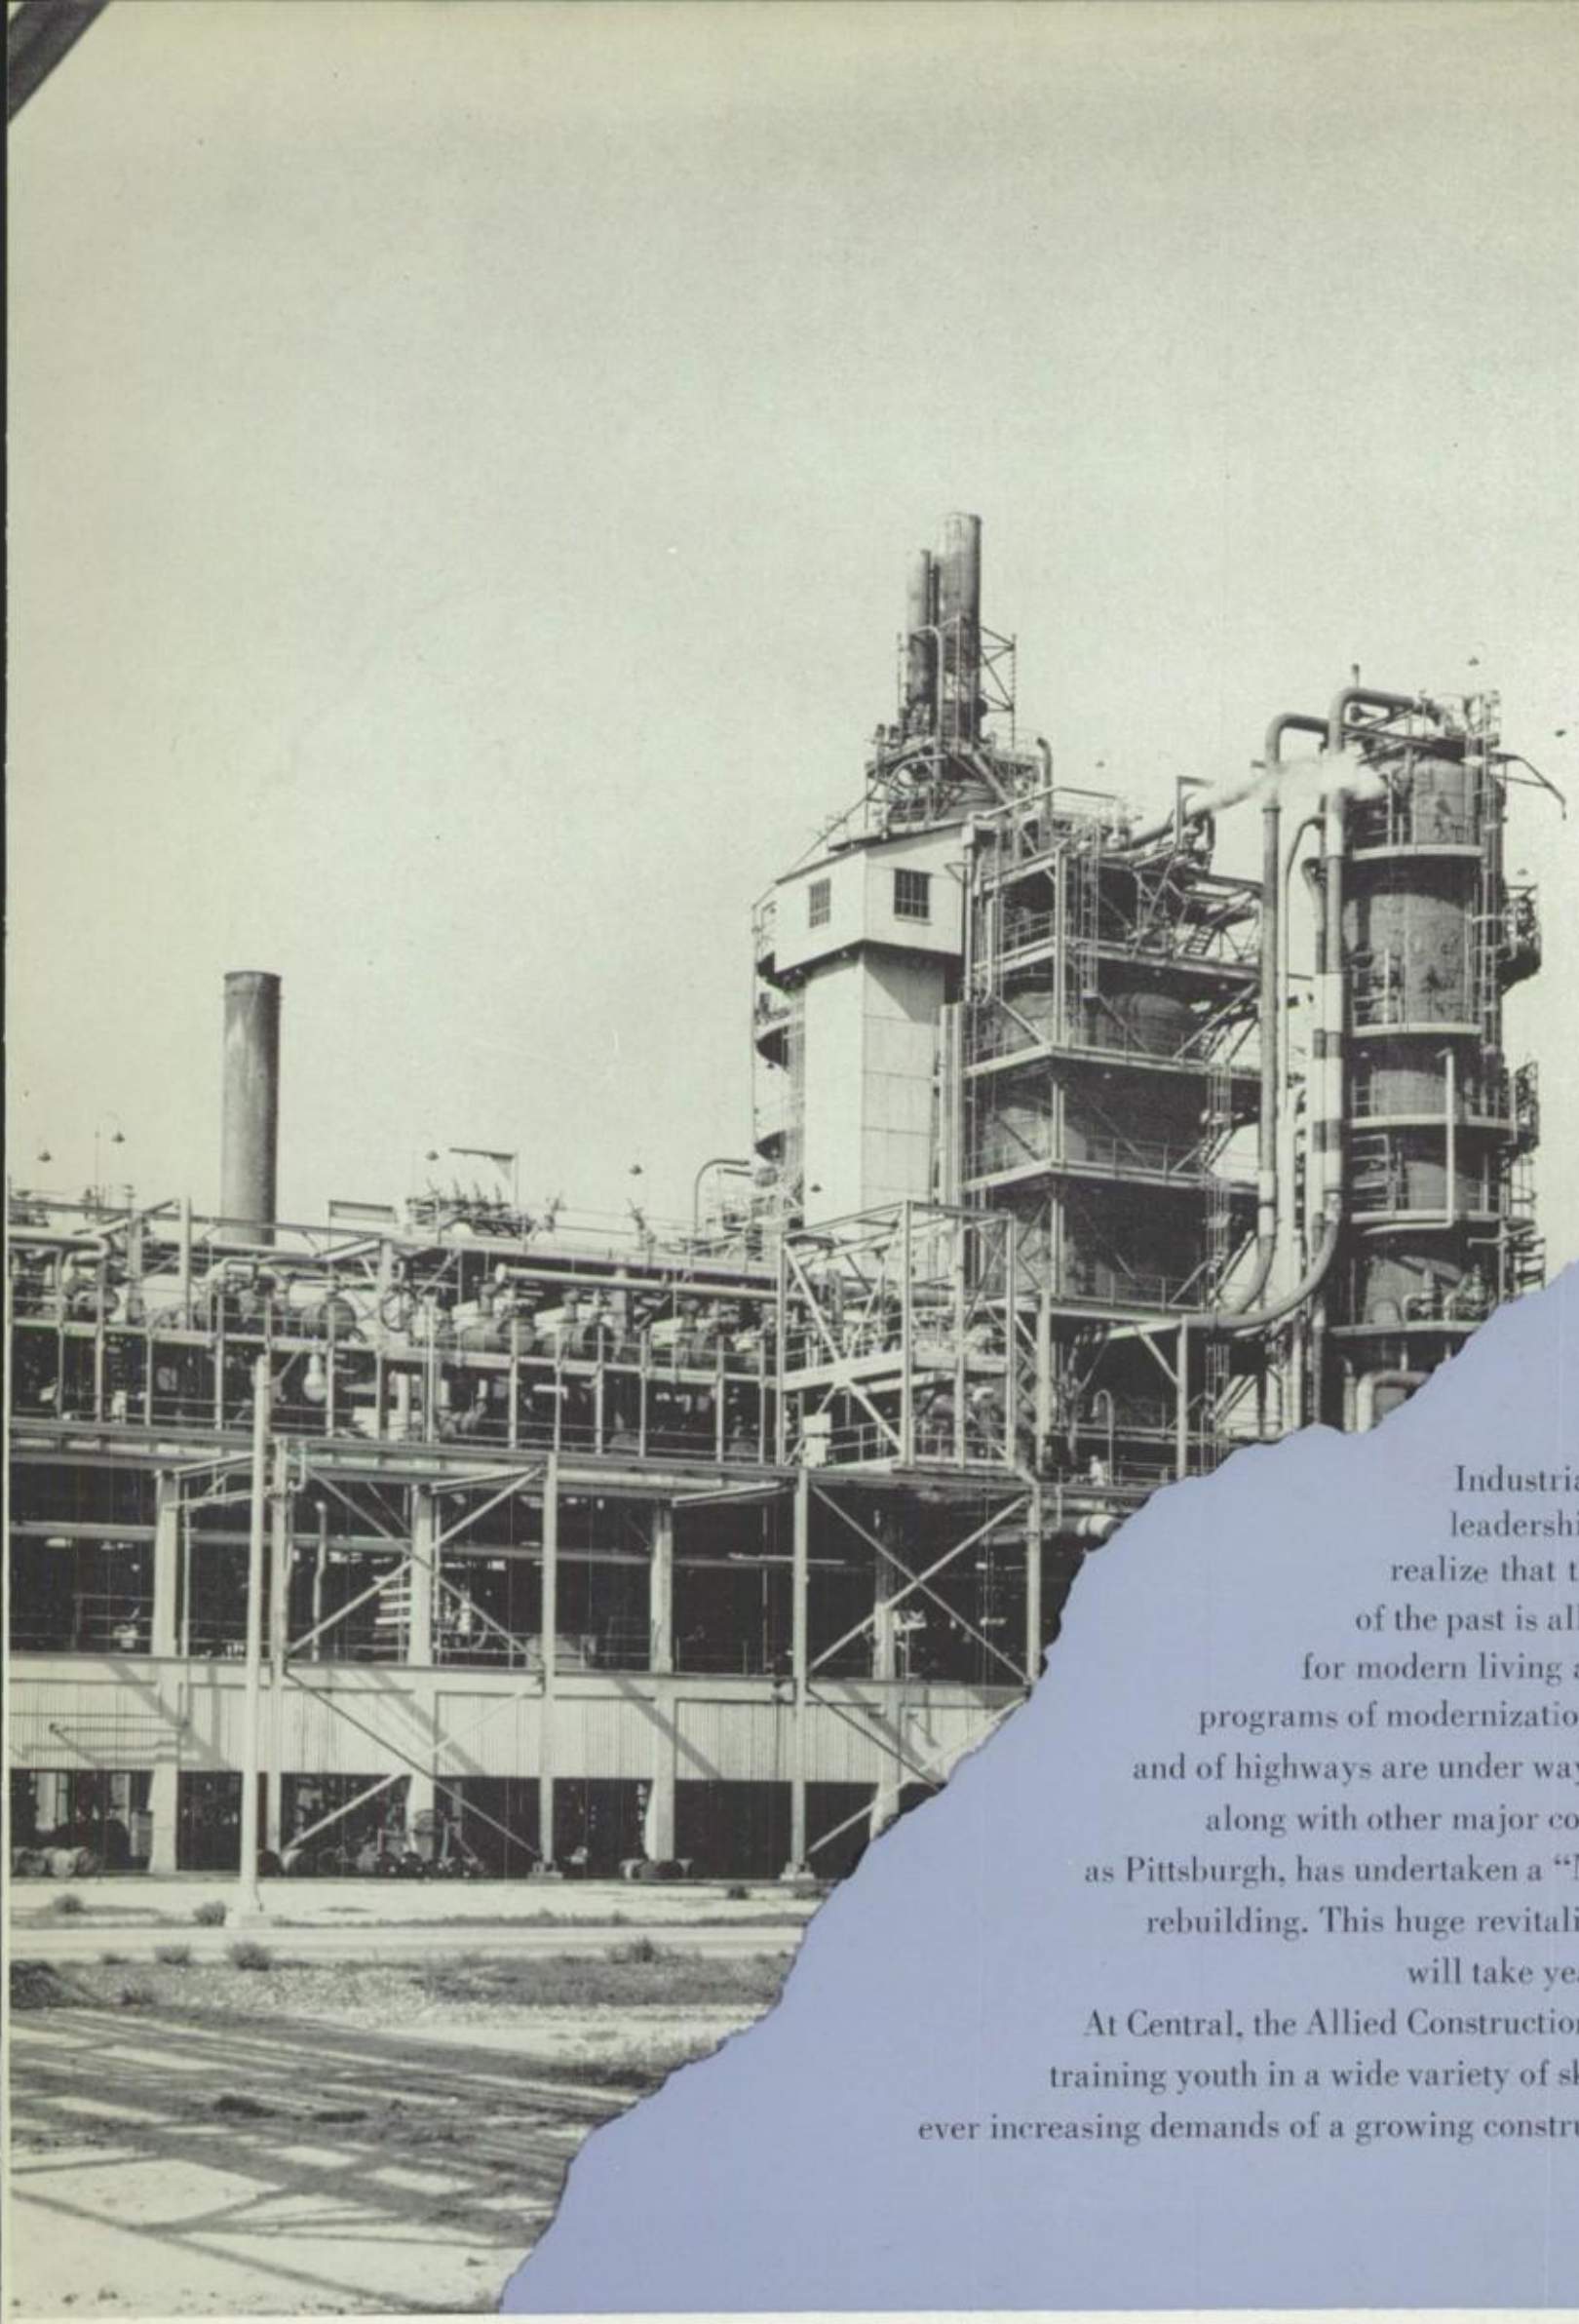
PROGRESS IN A MACHINE

In this age of advancing mechanical and electronic complexity in industrial and domestic procedures, Central High School, in developing youth to assume reponsible and essential jobs in our society, is itself progressing and growing with the times.

In technical and mechanical areas, trainees in such fields as radio, television, electrical, and laboratory techniques, machine apprenticeships, and other metal crafts, can feel economic security, especially in our city whose industry demands large numbers of recruits in these areas each year.

A G E . . .

PROGRESS IN BUILDING



Industrial and political leadership has begun to realize that the construction of the past is all too inadequate for modern living and tremendous programs of modernization of community and of highways are under way. Our own city, along with other major communities such as Pittsburgh, has undertaken a "Master Plan" of rebuilding. This huge revitalization program will take years to complete.

At Central, the Allied Construction Department is training youth in a wide variety of skills to meet the ever increasing demands of a growing construction industry.

PROGRESS

IN TRANSPORTS

Wonders of transportation, such as the Berlin airlift, demonstrate the phenomenal capacity of modern ingenuity in transportation. On the rail, over the highway, via the water, and through the air, all methods of transport have developed specialized techniques of handling both freight and passengers. The modern carrier is a miracle of efficiency and speed.

At Central High School our Aviation and Automotive Departments train youths for this great industry. Training is given in traditional automotive and aviation engines, diesel, and jets.

All of the vast advances in basic industry would be impossible with business techniques of 15 or 20 years ago. Procedures in management, production control, distribution, research direction, labor relations, and financing have kept pace with production itself. At Central, we are proud of our part in developing youth for this phase of modern business.

Progress, the theme of the 1956 PENDULUM, is designedly a policy of our school. While principles remain constant their applications and techniques of application are constantly being changed. Consequently, while we adhere to basic principles, our faculty is alive to the ever-changing technical advances and endeavors to incorporate them in current courses.

But school is more than courses. It is an experience in living. Our school brings to us as many phases of modern social living as can appropriately be provided by an educational institution. A full social calendar, a wide diversity of professional entertainment, our own program of plays, shows, and musical exhibitions, clubs, athletics, activities—all directed toward making the Central student a well-balanced, happy and prosperous adult—are all a part of our life here at Central.

1956 PENDULUM

Mr. Cecil O. Tower, Principal, At Home With Mrs. Tower

The Principal of Central High School

Efficient operation for any organization depends upon the co-operative effort of a well co-ordinated staff of dedicated individuals. This is the type of organization which Mr. Tower, our principal, has striven to build. That he has been eminently successful in achieving this goal is attested by the good will and vigor with which each member of the staff goes about his duties.

The qualities which have made Mr. Tower a successful executive in public school work are evident in his domestic life as well. This balance which is evident in Mr. Tower as an executive is also obvious to us, who as students, have had the pleasure of personal contact with him.

Assistant Principals

Mrs. Ruth S. Lape, Assistant Principal, in Charge of Pupil Personnel.

Mr. Thomas W. Peirano, Assistant Principal, in Charge of Teacher Personnel.

Most of the detail relating to the operation of our school goes under the scrutiny of the individuals pictured on this page. Problems relating to the faculty and the materials necessary for the operation of this huge institution come directly under the control of Mr. Peirano, who, with painstaking concern, considers each problem in infinite detail. The multitude of problems arising from student activities and conduct are the direct responsibility of Mrs. Lape. Her understanding and patience in treating the problems of each group or individual assures a fair and equitable consideration for everyone. So wide and varied are the problems which come to Mrs. Lape that it is impossible even to list them here. In close cooperation with Mrs. Lape are the counselors who detail and amass the mountains of information relating to the individual students of our school. Here again, the keynote of the relationship between students and administration is understanding and concern for the individual himself. Our counselors seek diligently for causes in pupil behavior, not for the actions in themselves. Counseling responsibility has been divided into class levels with each of the four counselors responsible for one division. In any given school year it is manifestly impossible to evaluate the good achieved by the work of a group of such dedicated individuals.

The Secretarial Staff

An effective and well co-ordinated secretarial staff is essential in a huge organization such as ours if the operation is not to bog down, even before the opening of school, under an avalanche of confused detail. The secretarial staff spends months in preparing for that big day just as it does after the closing of each school year. Preparing for entrance as well as checking and completing student records are long and painstaking tasks, yet the handling of these details is only a small portion of the duties of our secretaries. The amount of daily detail confronting the staff is staggering. Yet under the calm supervision of Miss Betty Tobaben, secretary to Mr. Tower, each member of the staff carries on her assigned duties efficiently and with dispatch. Miss Ruth Woolley, financial secretary, sees approximately a third of a million dollars go through her records during the year. Miss Melva Kresser must move rapidly to keep ahead of the detail going across Mr. Peirano's desk just as Miss Jo-Ann Proffitt keeps busy to keep up with Mrs. Lape's details. Switchboard lights often resemble a Christmas tree for Mrs. Ella Staubitz while Miss Joan Stanley keeps the records of some three hundred co-oping seniors in addition to securing work certificates for each of them. Miss Maureen Thesken has been transferred from the switchboard to the Practical Nursing Department. Mrs. Evelyn Bierley has assumed the duties of Mrs. Sue Wohlwender as secretary for the counselors. Other recent additions include Mrs. Irma Merkle for Mr. Roman, and Mrs. Gladys Dunaway for attendance and class cuts.

Mrs. Irma Merkle, Intermediate Stenographer; Mrs. Gladys Dunaway, Junior Stenographer.

Miss Ruth Woolley, Financial Secretary; Miss Joan Stanley, Junior Stenographer; Mrs. Sue Wohlwender, Clerk.

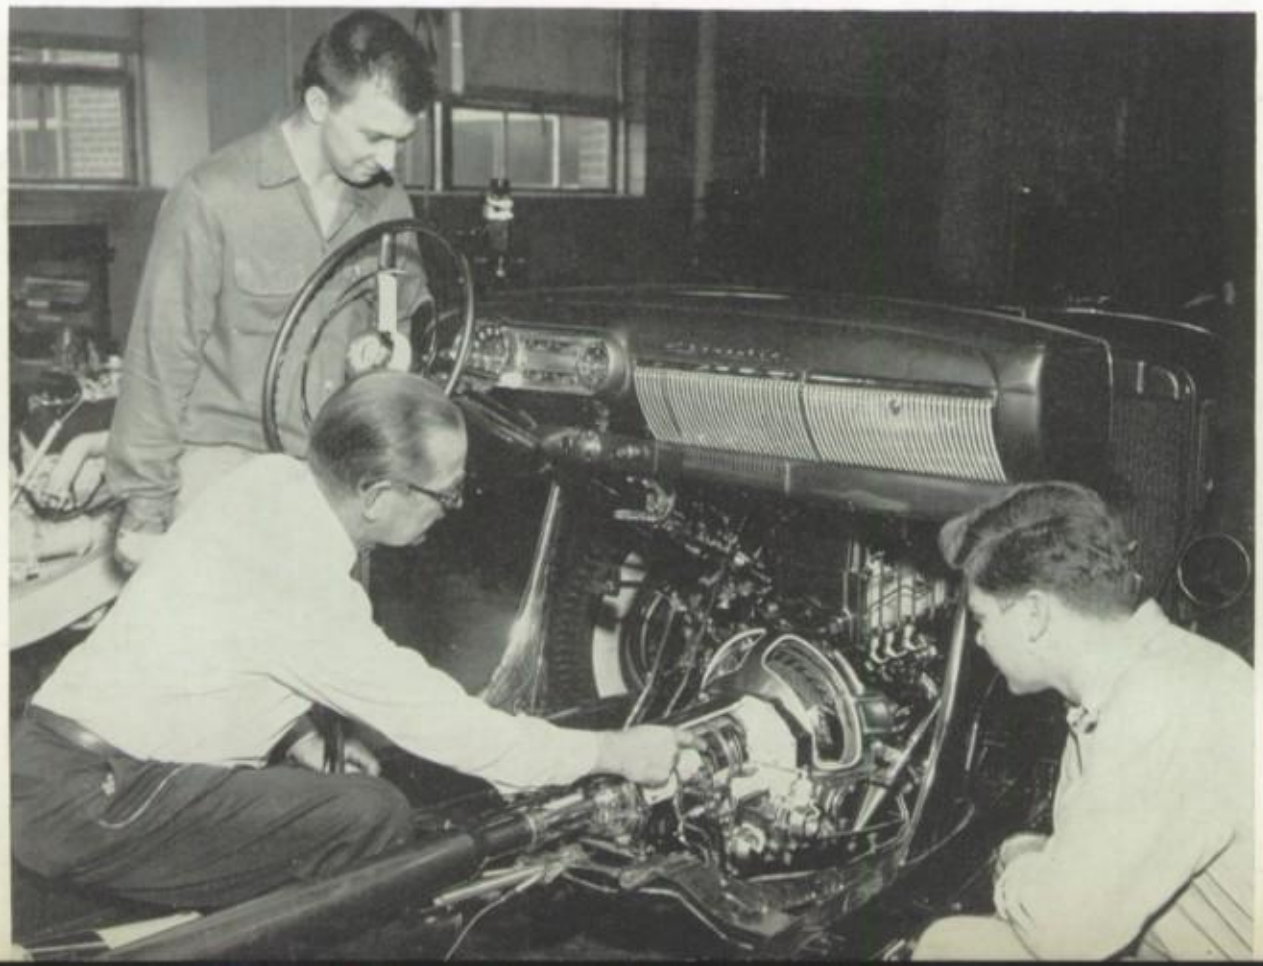
Mr. Tenhunfeld explains the intricacies of a transmission.

Cooperative students of Central High School are in much demand. This is especially true of the cooperative students in the Automotive Department of Central. For over thirty-five years co-ops from the Automotive Department have been working for the various automotive dealers, individual automotive repair shops and gasoline service stations in greater Cincinnati.

The extensive training given to the automotive students in the fundamentals of the automotive business make it possible for the co-op to find employment as an apprentice in the auto service and repair field, the body repair field, in gasoline service stations, as a parts and accessories clerk and also in the auto sales department.



Mr. Winter showing cutaway chassis.

The Automotive Department

Many automotive cooperative students "stay on" in their co-op jobs after graduation and become the better mechanics and service managers for their employers. Co-ops earn approximately $35.00 per week during the two weeks they are on the job.

While students are required to familiarize themselves with all phases of the industry, some specialization is encouraged particularly if the student has demonstrated a special aptitude for the work.

The Armed Forces of the United States offer many opportunities to the graduate of Central High School's Automotive Course.

Approximately one hundred students register in their junior year for the Automotive Department. The Cincinnati Automobile Dealers Association has been exceedingly cooperative in encouraging its members to place our students in on-the-job training during their senior year. Each year the C.A.D.A. has generously awarded three valuable prizes of tool sets for the three top automotive students. This has been a valuable incentive in keeping scholarship achievements on a high level. Each year, the department graduates approximately seventy-five students, many of whom are already capable mechanics.

Mr. Simpkins inspects carburetor.

Tremendous expansion of Commercial Flying during the past few years has created an ever increasing demand for trained personnel throughout the field of Aeronautics. Corporation flying, air cargo, coach service for passengers, and radar control of air traffic has broadened the scope of occupations open to new employees. The many graduates of this department holding key local positions attest to the important role the school has played in the growth of aviation in this community. The curriculum is patterned directly after the standards set up by the Civil Aeronautics Administration who has the final licensing authority for airplanes and engine mechanics.

Instructors in the Aviation Department must hold Certificates of Proficiency (issued by the Federal Government) in their subject in addition to the regular teacher's certificate. The student receives his technical training and practice in skills through specially equipped laboratories and shops. To add realism and provide broader in-school experience, the boys maintain a flyable airplane and operate a radio station through the Aero-Radio Club.

With commercial emphasis being placed upon jet engine power-plants at this time, many of the graduates are going directly into the Air Force to get their required military service behind them while getting additional jet training to qualify for commercial and airline mechanic positions. Students do their shop work during the eleventh year and co-op at local airports during their senior year.

Because of the highly technical nature of aviation, the educational background of the students of this department must be based principally upon science, mathematics, and the technical information relating to this field. In addition to pure mechanical know-how the graduate of this department, in order to successfully master his trade, must have a working knowledge of aerodynamics, meteorology, and power plant principles.

Business Education Department

Central's Commercial Department trains boys and girls for employment in the city's many business offices. All the subjects offered are on accredited senior high school level. To qualify for this training, pupils must meet the required business standards for personality, integrity, intelligence, physical fitness, health, and appearance.

Training that is required for obtaining commercial positions is offered in the bookkeeping, general clerical, and secretarial fields.

Every effort is made to place Senior Commercial Department students in co-op jobs that are best suited to their abilities and personality traits. In every instance possible, job placement is made directly in the field in which the training of the pupil has been concentrated. Many of these co-op students are asked by their employers to remain as permanent employees of the firms where they had their co-op assignments, after they graduate from Central High School.

Toward the close of their senior year, co-op students are given an opportunity to take a Civil Service examination at the school and are encouraged to take other examinations for various job opportunities.

The office equipment used in the Commercial Department is modern and up-to-date. A partial list of machines used in the instruction of pupils for future jobs includes Burroughs Adding and Calculating Machines, Victor Adding-Listing Machines, Monroe Calculators, Marchant Calculators, Comptometers, Bookkeeping Machines, Addressographs, Folding Machines, Dictaphones, Ediphones, Electric and Manual Typewriters, Graphotypes, Vari-Typers, Mimeographs, Multigraphs, Multiliths, and Sundstrands. Instruction in the operation of a telephone switchboard is also given.

Scholarship requirements in the Business Education Department are among the most rigid in the school because of the exacting nature of the work to be done by the graduates of this department. All of the students are expected to demonstrate special ability in spelling, English, and the area in which they are specializing if they hope to compete successfully for jobs in this field.

Much of the training is on the very latest equipment developed for any specialized field. In bookkeeping for example, in addition to basic training in the principles of the subject, students receive instructions and practice on the latest equipment actually used in businesses throughout the nation. In other areas the same policy prevails. It is felt that the graduate of our school, in order to be properly trained, should have a basic working knowledge and at least have developed an elementary skill in the use of the advanced techniques used in business.

Some of the classes are set up as production departments or shops wherein the student actually receives training comparable to realistic work situations.

The Allied Construction Industry in Cincinnati is a thriving segment of our local business. Consequently, the graduates of this department find a ready market for their talents. Due to the extremely wide variety of woodwork done in the community the basic skills must be emphasized prior to specialization in one of the areas taught at the school. In some areas such as pattern-making where skill is critical, a high degree of technical achievement is essential. Students specializing in this field receive much practical training through the many production type jobs which the department completes in the course of a year's time.

The object of The Allied Construction Department is to train its student in the following fields: carpentry, cabinet making, millroom practice and pattern-making. There are three shops, one advanced shop, a pattern shop, and a basic shop. Those Central High School students who elect woodworking are taught the fundamentals of the trade while in the basic shops. During their eleventh grade the students specialize in one of the fields mentioned above. They spend fifteen hours per week in related work. In the twelfth grade the boys may co-op, two weeks in school and two weeks in industry.

The local construction trades and allied industries co-operate by employing the students as co-ops during their twelfth year. Many of our former graduates are now employers of our co-ops.

Electrical

The aim of the Electrical Trade Department is to train high school pupils who choose this course so that they are prepared to enter the various branches of the electrical industry. Training for this goal includes the development of the accepted basic skills, the use of tools and test equipment peculiar to it, the ability to recognize the various common units used in this field, the manner in which they are constructed and how and why the apparatus will perform when used separately or in combination. In this type of work their future employment is concerned with installation, manufacturing, construction and maintenance of electrical equipment. Steady employment in many of these divisions will lead to a highly skilled and/or specialized workman happy in his work, with opportunities for advancement, commanding a high rate of pay and steady employment.

Students co-op through their twelfth year in some branch of the electrical field at two-week periods. An attempt is made to start them on the job at the beginning of the year. Twelve full credits are needed before co-oping can be started.

Distributive Education Department

In Distributive Education, students are trained for retailing and industrial selling jobs. Students learn the skills of selling, marking, shipping, stock work, cashier-wrapping, display, advertising, and personnel.

Students must meet the requirements of this industry: a good personality and character, a general educational background plus, the retail skills.

Retailing offers promotional opportunities to the well-qualified in executive jobs of buying, advertising and display. Industrial selling provides another opportunity for advancement.

These skills are learned in classes of merchandise information, analysis, display art, salesmanship and retailing. In the eleventh grade, retail students operate the student store. Here they receive basic training in selling Central students school supplies. As part of display art, students handle the displays for the school.

In the twelfth grade, Distributive Education students co-op in specialty and department stores throughout the city in jobs which are fitted to their ability and skill. It is in these jobs that the student gets his most valuable training. Here, he meets the general public. The student must learn how to cope with the many different personalities with whom he will come in contact.

Gift wrapping and sales training are also essentials of the D.E. course.

This department, one of our fastest growing educational divisions, is our answer to the food service industry's need to meet the revolutionary changes that are occurring in America's eating habits. The students receive specific job training in the high school cafeteria and Drake Memorial Hospital. The enrollment in Basic Food Classes has continued to increase indicating that high school students are interested in the challenges and opportunities offered in a food service career.

Food students are trained to prepare and serve food to the public. They assist experienced employees actually engaged in quantity food production. In the laboratory and through field trips students observe and study the different types of eating places, fish and meat packing industries and related food technological plants.

It has been said that, "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." The food students were hosts to the Cincinnati Restaurant Association in February. Dinner was served to a large group in the Students' Auxiliary Dining Room. Here the results of their training were put to the final test. The highly favorable comments of their possible future employers indicated that they had passed with flying colors. One outcome of the occasion was an invitation for the students to attend a three day food management conference at the Netherland Plaza.

If present plans are completed before September 1956, the Foods Department will have a new kitchen designed to provide cooking facilities similar to those of the modern hotel or restaurant.

During their senior year the food students are placed in cooperative training employment with cafeterias, hospitals, restaurants and drive-ins. This training provides work experience while they are learning to apply the results of their school courses. While they are co-oping two weeks of each month, the students are paid the prevailing pay for learners in the food service industry. Many employers offer permanent positions to food students after they have been graduated.

At a time when the printed word is making such a terrific impact upon the way we live, it is comforting to know that the Graphic Arts Department is offering increasing opportunities to young men and women to prepare themselves for entrance into these vital areas. During the last year a new Miehle Horizontal Press was added to the equipment in the letter-press pressroom.

Graphic Arts Printing

Approximately forty co-op pupils have gained industrial experience in shops in the Greater Cincinnati area. More calls from employers for both steady and co-op workers continue to come than can be filled. The fastest growing phase of the industry continues to be in the lithographic field. Pupils can elect lithography in the tenth grade, and if they continue to show progress, can get more training in their eleventh and twelfth grades.

Central High School's Department of Metal Trades offers training in Basic Machine Shop, Advanced Machine Shop, Sheet Metal Shop, and Acetylene and Electric Welding. Eleventh grade boys in Machine Trade, for example, spend approximately 585 hours in Advanced Machine Shop where they receive experience in all operations on the various machines of the same types and varieties found in small jobbing shops. This training is obtained under the excellent guidance of the instructors who teach the students through practical procedures comparable to industrial practices. One year credit is allowed by some factories on their apprenticeship training for the training received here at Central.

Sheet Metal Shop and Welding Shop are both conducted as basic shops and may be elected as advanced courses in the eleventh and twelfth grade levels. The value of these shops as supplements to other trades or as special crafts is recognized in the whole curriculum. Co-op jobs in these two fields are very desirable and lead to very lucrative jobs upon graduation. Trainees in these fields are much in demand.

The Needle Trades Department of Central High School offers excellent training in four specialized fields—tailoring, trade embroidery, power sewing, and dressmaking. The most modern and up-to-date equipment and methods are employed in all needle trades shops. Opportunities for employment for capable persons in needle trades training are excellent. In addition to the four specialized fields, a student can also learn how to spot and press men's and women's garments, make alterations and repairs, and learn methods of properly marking garments to be cleaned.

A four year period of training is offered in these fields. Students in their senior year co-op in Cincinnati's garment and dry cleaning establishments. The singing needles of needle trades shops sing happy songs. They have the honor of making costumes for the "Central Varieties" and other dramatic and stage productions. Real experience and a sufficient background in power machine operation for the necessary trade requirements is gained from these production jobs.

Technical Training Program

1956 marked the first year that a class was graduated from our technical program. The graduates have had courses in solid geometry, trigonometry, physics and chemistry, in addition to courses in chemical technology, electrical technology and construction technology.

The technical program provides broad technical training of a laboratory nature in preparation for technical jobs in industry. It also meets entrance requirements for most engineering colleges.

At the end of grade 10, pupils with above average ability may choose this program. They do not co-op or attend summer school in grade 12.

Basic science is essential for technical course background

Many of the pupils held part time jobs in laboratories of Cincinnati plants in which they performed operations involving techniques which are readily learned by people with less than professional training. Some of these jobs were of a metalurgical or biochemical nature.

From time to time, throughout the school year, requests were received from various Cincinnati plants, requesting the school to supply them with graduates from our technical program. With the graduation of our first class, we expect its members to lead the way in the technical field for many future classes that will follow.

Best wishes from the student body and faculty to the first class graduating from the technical program. May you be happy in your work and your work be satisfying to you.

Designed to prepare the student to take his place as a responsible member in our democratic society, the General Subjects curriculum, must be considered not only as a supplement to the vocational training of the individual but also the core of his social education. The full educational program gives the student an adequate background in the social and moral aspects of living as well as economic self-sufficiency. Equipped with the fundamentals that build character, personal happiness, usefulness to the community and independence, the Central students go into the world of realism with a feeling of confidence and security based on knowledge.

General Subjects

This year at Central High School, the general subjects curriculum is characterized by depth of subject and a degree of specialization to the requirements of various trades offered at the school. Work offered here in the ninth and tenth grades is equivalent and parallel to that offered in other Cincinnati Public High Schools. The specialization, however, is true only in the eleventh and twelfth grades—the grades in which students specialize in their trades.

Seventeen units, including one-half unit in physical education and one-half unit of health, are required for graduation. Dramatics, choral music, instrumental music, job relations, journalism, speech, mechanical drawing, and art have become two and one-half hour courses within the limitations of the new Ohio High School Standards made possible by a more liberal policy in the area of physical education and health. Commercial art, however, will be offered as a field of specialization beginning next year.

Mr. Nicoletti points out geographical location to students.

P R O G R E S S

The Central curriculum is as broad as that found in the local comprehensive high schools, with the exception of foreign languages.

This year at Central, the technical course, now in its third year prepares the student who elects this program for college entrance. Emphasis in this course is placed on the technical and scientific subjects with a maximum of laboratory and shop instruction permitted in areas of basic science such as electricity and mechanics. Also there is additional time allowed for advanced mathematics and science. This course, to provide the necessary shop and laboratory time, operates on a non-co-op basis.

At Central extra-curricular and recreational activities are not slighted. A wide range of special interest and club activities are available. In addition, educational techniques employing a full complement of audio and visual aids are utilized to facilitate classroom, shop, and laboratory presentations. This year many assemblies suitable for representing a wide range of educational and entertaining features were scheduled.

This year all boys and girls have the opportunity to participate in a wide range of seasonal indoor and outdoor sports in either intermural or intramural athletics. A system-wide organization makes this possible by providing such competition both for the boys and for the girls. Our clubs, of which there is a great variety, includes rifles, bowling, square dancing, photography, science, religious, social and other organizations which offer an outlet for many specialized interests, round-out a full social program. Each year many new clubs are formed.

The Program of Practical Nursing is of twelve months duration. It consists of four months classroom and correlated laboratory practice at Central High School. Students practice the basic nursing arts and diet therapy in their laboratories. Classroom instruction includes body structure, personal and vocational relationships, nutrition, and nursing arts. After this pre-clinical period, eight months of hospital training follow in five Cincinnati hospitals which provide the students with a maintenance allowance. Many high school girls who have completed their junior year, use this course in their senior year because it is evaluated on a four elective credit basis. Classes are enrolled three times a year. A certificate is granted upon completion of the course indicating the status of graduate practical nurse.

Health Services

In the tenth grade, each student receives a complete physical examination including visual, dental and hearing examination, chest X-ray and serological test. This service is provided by the Cincinnati Public Schools. Throughout the school year, the Cincinnati Health Department maintains an alert staff at the school constantly guarding the health of our students.

Physical health is not the only interest of the department. Mental health is also a great concern of the Cincinnati Public Schools as well as the Health Department. A broad testing program provides data concerning the students' general ability and academic achievement. Psychiatric aid and psychological tests are available for students who can profit by them.

The department provides glasses, arranges for clinical appointments, and sets up surgery when these services are necessary. Class study in speech therapy, sight saving and hearing are available to help overcome defects in these areas. Usually the function of the department is advisory except in cases of indigency in which case, through appropriate social agencies, the necessary medical, psychological, or other service is provided. Many services, such as speech therapy, and others are provided by the Board of Education.

Student Council

Members of the Student Council are elected from the membership of the Student Representative Assembly. The assembly is composed of one member from each home room. The candidates are nominated by the student body by plurality vote. Council meetings are held once each month in the Conference Room.

Four purposes of the Student Council are: (1) to promote good school spirit and citizenship, (2) to promote respect for and cooperation with the professional staff, (3) to help in formulating general policies affecting social behavior on and off the campus, (4) to encourage a desirable interpretation of the school program to parents, friends and other community groups.

Student Representative Assembly

The Student Representative Assembly is composed of representatives elected from each homeroom. Mr. Homer M. Jones serves as advisor. The body works with the staff in matters of student and school interest. The Assembly brings ideas and wishes of the students to the attention of the professional staff and brings back to the student body the discussions and decisions of the Assembly and the Student Council.

Central High School Band

The record of the band this year is a proud one. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Wheeler, the Central High School Band lists many performances on its yearly schedule. In addition to playing at athletic events and auditorium pep sessions, the band, or parts of it, provided music for all stage and many social productions.

This year's band is composed of forty-six members. They have performed at football games, numerous assemblies, dances, Class Day, and Commencement Exercises. Band is one of the many elective subjects offered at Central.

The officers of the band are: President, Peter Lind; Vice-President, Carl Wriston; Secretary, Jackie King; and Treasurer, Bonita Dunaway.

Central High School Choral Group

Choral music has been considered an important part of the cultural program in the Cincinnati high schools for many years. This year marked the arrival of Mr. Abraham Gershkovitz, the new director. The choral group sings on such occasions as the Variety Show, the May Festival, Class Day, and Commencement Exercises. It is an elective for those who qualify with a good voice and good spirit.

One major forward development for the choral group this year was the purchase of new and better music. This was a distinct boost to the morale of the group. It has broadened the repertoire of the group considerably. The various kinds of music acquired, include arrangements of popular songs, spirituals, and sacred church hymns. Now that our musical groups are developed to the point where they can be self-sustaining, they are able to gain the materials necessary for the further development of polished musical groups.

The students participating in the choral group are:
SOPRANOS—Delores Young, Lena Inman, Judy Gussett, Ruth Denike, Clara Sidell, Jeanne Thompson, Jewel Fitzwater, Mildred Humphrey, Susan Kelly, Patricia Kelly, Mary Sing, Norma Watt, Mary Kelley, Earline Dixon, Pat Ertel, Lynda Craig, Kathy Bojar, Joyce Doll, Pat Poynter, Nancy Crowthers, Janet Dehner, Janice Brown, Judy Winters, Gertrude Tanner, JoAnn Ruess, Darla Peeno, Carol Kober, Betty Cooley, Pat McLean, June Daulton, Charlene Jones, Georgetta Jefferson, Betty Hill, Mae Ayers, Lola Anderson, Judy Fogle, Anna Webb, Virginia Fagin, Betty Inyart, Janice Lowry; ALTOS—Barbara Jackson, Barbara Williams, Dorothy Lewis, Sonia Hanselman, Charlene Mahan, Clara Sutton, Sarah Glover, Ronald Isley, Verna Kramer, Dorothy Vossler, Pat Kern, Janet Morgan, Marilyn Moss, Pat Allison, Carolyn Rodgers, Carolyn Trovillo, Betty Stephens, Teddy Maddix, Helen Watson, Carolyn White, Jean Schnitker, Marjorie Craig, Norma Ruble, Janice Maupin, Burlyn Sanders, Virginia Simmons, Barbara Harrison; TENORS—Donald Chatman, Emory Hall, Nancy Lowry, Robert Pyle, Carole Konrad, Gloria Combs, Shirley Otis, Norma Jackson, Gloria NeSmith, Pat Franklin, Carol Brackett, Jerry Collins, Bill McMullins, Robert Jones, Rita Leigh, Esker Robinson; BASSES—Charles Prather, Carlos Hughes, Reynolds Dukes, Lyn Holthaus, Tom Broughton, Marvin Walters, Larry Hale, Elmer Sellers, Neal Scholtz, John Payton, Ben Hermes, Ed Bosse, Ollie Scott, John Carroll, Lynell Allen, Charles Wheeler, Robert Martin.

The Glee Club and Choral Group of Central are composed of members from all four classes. All members taking less than 5 periods a week are considered Glee Club. In general, the emphasis on details in the Glee Club is not as severe as it is in the Choral Group. Also, such factors as music appreciation, recreational singing, and performances for special holidays and amateurs are taken into consideration. The Glee Club provides an opportunity for screening candidates for the Choral Group.

The Sweetheart Dance

These feet did most of the dancing

The Sweetheart Dance, the annual event at which the contestants who vie for the PENDULUM Queen are chosen, was held on Saturday, February 4. At 10:00 the lucky winners were announced. The young ladies were then photographed by a capable portrait artist and their picture sent to a competent authority for judging and planning in the features section of our book. The winner of this judging is entitled "PENDULUM Queen" with the other nine either Ladies in Waiting or Court Favorites.

The dance was held in the lunchroom with about 500 people in attendance. The Central High School Dance Band furnished the music and all of the arrangements were made and executed through the combined efforts of the annual staff. There was a heavier burden on the staff since both the advisors, Mr. Moschel and Mr. Sofko, were ill. The staff worked long and hard to make the dance a success. Without the wonderful help and cooperation from the faculty, this could not have been possible.

Ray Lynch, a popular senior, served as master of ceremonies. It was his pleasure to announce the winners of the Sweetheart Contest. The winners were: Alice Ryan, Louise Beerman, Peggy Allen, Shirley Cooper, Marcia Schille, Alfreda Proffitt, Mary Collier, Barbara Daulton, Phyllis Grant, and Phyllis Wagner.

Each of the girls was presented with a charm bracelet engraved with "Sweetheart of Central, '56," and a corsage. Christine Pappashales served as the hostess. Chaperons for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Tower, Mr. and Mrs. Salie, Mr. Lund, Mr. Roman, Mr. Nabors, and Mr. Justice.

The Pendulum

The "55" annual staff produced a medalist award book judged by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. This year the staff was determined to do equally as well although they were greatly handicapped by the absence of Mr. R. O. Sofko, Editorial Advisor, and Mr. Ralph Moschel, the Financial Advisor, who were ill for approximately two months. Most of the work done during the absence of the two advisors fell on the staff members. They were aided by faculty members who volunteered their services. Both Mr. Sofko and Mr. Moschel guided the work from hospital and from home.

On Class Day, which was June 9, 1955, the "55" edition of the PENDULUM was officially completed. On June 10, 1955, the "56" edition was started. Last spring contracts again were signed by the same companies. Materials and photographs were gathered early to avoid the last-minute rush experienced in previous years.

Of last year's PENDULUM Staff, approximately 50 per cent were lost through graduation, transferring to other cities, and shifting of interests to other school activities. However, the original corps of experienced members worked diligently in shaping a new membership into a vibrant, competent and efficient staff; and although faced with the task of carrying on without faculty leadership for more than two months through the most critical production period, they did a remarkable and praise-worthy job as evidenced by the very excellent edition which you now hold in your hands.

The picture contract went to Osborne Photographers with the senior and faculty portraits being taken at the H. & S. Pogue Company studio. Printing, engraving and cover contracts were signed as a package deal with The Benson Printing Company of Nashville, Tennessee. Mr. Norman Shaw was the printers agent and advisor. His assistance and counseling are deeply appreciated.

Knight Life, Central High's newspaper, is edited, published, and printed here at the school. Organized in September, 1953, the paper has gained in popularity by leaps and bounds; and each week students eagerly await the next issue to read the latest gossip, sports news, school news, and other events which are interesting and important to us. The chief aims of this paper are to inform students about all the news of Central High and also to stimulate school spirit.

Published weekly except during the summer or when holidays cause a three-day week or less, the paper is usually a four-page edition; but on special occasions the staff produces a six-page or even an eight-page edition. Holiday editions usually feature color work.

The subscription rate is $1.75 per year or ten cents per copy unless purchased as a part of the Package Plan wherein the rate is $1.00 per year.

The staff is composed of selected students recruited mainly through the Journalism classes, and this group regularly holds office hours Monday through Friday, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., in the Knight Life Office, Room 255.

Photography work is done in the photo-lithography classes, and the paper is set and made in the linotype and hand composition classes. Printing is done by students under the direction of teachers in whose department the work is done.

The editorial staff is under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Felix, and the business staff is under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Clift.

The curtains closed anything but dreamily upon Central's second dramatic production, "Head in the Clouds" on Friday evening, March 2, in the school auditorium.

From start to finish, this two act comedy moved along speedily to a "right snappy" conclusion with much chuckling and laughter between.

Charlotte Harney was the leading lady as the frequently bewitched and bewitching Amy Matthews, a typical and attractive girl in her teens—and like so many others, given to daydreaming. Her fertile imagination created a wonderful, fantastic world in which, both in the present and future, she enjoyed wild triumphs over her current problems and her snobbish rival. One time she was a famous actress; then, she was a great and celebrated healer (a la Arrowsmith); she was the first woman Justice of the Supreme Court—and so forth through six different dreams which were enacted right in the living room and which included all the characters of the play in strange and amusing ways.

For a while, everything looked pretty hopeless for everyone concerned, including two bewildered boy friends, Blair Hendricks and Luke Jackson, Central's own Gerry Starkey and Bob Speak respectively, a comically scoffing brother, Hugo, (Fritz Feldhaus), two wise-cracking girl friends (Elsie and Judy Winters) and two of the most confused parents on records (Kathy O'Connell and Jim Breiling).

But all turned out better than could be expected with Amy's photograph in Life Magazine —but only after Amy had come to some sober realizations about life itself. Other people in Amy's world were: the unforgettable and dynamic speech teacher, Mary Ann Roth; sophisticated, snobbish rival for the affections of Luke, Janet Powell; sweet, hopelessly-in-love friends who tried to be helpful, Ruby Fulton and Paul Raines as Lois Stuart and Julian Reed; the efficient pair of servants (Maid and Butler), Sherry Brown and David Gerard; the one-tune, oriental snake charmer, Peter Lind; the comic reading, ever-present Slug who trailed Hugo and Amy's friend Sissie, Ken Armstrong; and finally the teen-agers who spent much time at the drug store juke box, Gloria Stewart, Charlotte Noel, John Symmes, and Bob Evers.

The School Play

Aiding and abetting the cast in producing this play, was the dramatic director, Mrs. Sylvia Martin, with a group of faculty assistants including Miss Edith Warner, Miss Elizabeth Peoples, Mr. Frank Fairchild, Mr. Frank Glatthaar, Mr. Edward Simmermon, Mr. Howard Wesley, Mr. William Bartels, Mr. John Etling, Mr. Henry Drace, Miss Helen Twomey, Mr. Carl Schmidt, Mr. Clarence Heslar, Mr. Leonard Himmelmann and Miss JoAnn Hughes.

The stage crew was called upon to turn in an equally difficult performance which consisted of skillfully coordinating and timing their efforts in lighting and changing set pieces in rapid succession. Last, but far from least, these students earned their laurels along with the cast: Prompters—J. Elliott and R. Winters. Properties—Bob Evers. Stage Crew—E. Shields, C. Shields, W. Snell, E. Inman, A. Piening, J. Marsala, D. Hauff, D. Bodley, J. Walton, G. Kihnke, T. Zaeske, D. Wakefield, K. Ball, and C. Weiss.

Sarah Glover, Marlene Burck, Sheila Koester, and Mrs. Bea Jacobson.

Mrs. Bea Jacobson is again in charge of the cheerleaders this year. Each year ten students are chosen for the squad. A cheerleading clinic is held prior to the tryouts. Selections are then made on the basis of scholastic standing, attitude and ability. Age and grade level are not considered in the selections.

The annual Mr. and Miss Pep contest is a part of the cheerleaders' many activities. The winners are announced at one of the important football games of the season.

The cheerleaders lead cheers at football and basketball games, and at regular pep meetings throughout the year. They receive varsity letters for their work, if they have performed satisfactorily. This year's squad members are: Barbara McGee, Arlene Burck, Marlene Burck, Shirlee Schneider, Gloria Combs, Pat Poynter, Kathy Bojar, Sheila Koester, Sarah Glover, and Josephine Foley.

Rifle Club

Mr. Herbert Simpkins, director of the Rifle Club, holds regular practice sessions for the club every Tuesday at the Western Hills Y.M.C.A. A rifle team is picked from the best sharpshooters of the club to compete with other Cincinnati high school rifle teams.

One of the aims of the club is to teach each member the safety factors in the use of firearms. Target shooting in itself is a great sport, but it also helps the individual attain self-control, patience, self-confidence, and a competitive spirit.

The club has acquired some of the finest equipment for the range. The group was organized in 1941 by Mr. Norman Henderson and has developed some marksmen of outstanding quality. The club has an unbroken record of fine teams, loyal memberships, and successful competition.

Members Are: Donald Mandich, Bob Marcello, Ronald Michaelson, Edward Bosse, Charles Woodard, Arthur Coleman, Howard Rubin, Philip Kallschmidt.

Central High School
Cincinnati, Ohio

Dear Mr. Sofko:

Please excuse my delay in returning to you the ten photographs of your Central High School beauties. It is a difficult task, indeed, to choose the loveliest of ten such fair young ladies. After due deliberation by myself and several of the experts on my staff we have reached the following conclusions for the PENDULUM.

The Pendulum Queen - Phyllis Grant

The Four Beauties - Phyllis Wagner
Shirley Cooper
Louise Beerman
Mary Collier

The Favorites - Peggy Allen
Alfreda Proffitt
Marcia Schille
Barbara Daulton
Alice Ryan

It has indeed been a pleasure to help you on this part of your 1956 yearbook.

Very truly yours,

After a slow start in the Pigskin Preview in which Central tied Western Hills and bowed to Hughes 7-0, the Knights came on to have a very successful season.

The Varsity squad which was made up of six seniors and twenty-two juniors had seven wins—one tie—two losses, and took second place in the Public High School League. Prospects for next season are bright with thirteen senior lettermen returning with a burning desire for a "First Central High City Football Championship."

Bob Sharp and Wimlish Owens made the All-City first team and were nominated to play in the "Ohio All-Star Game," that is to be played in Canton, Ohio, on August 15, 1956.

Prospects for 1956

TOM RATLIFF

The 13 returning lettermen will provide a solid corps around which Freddie Yeager can build for '56. Perhaps the most difficult job problem will be to find a replacement for quarterback Bob Sharp. First in line to replace Bob's shoes at the present time is Bill Clark. Bill will perhaps find some competition from a strong group of reserves who are being moved up, but with experience on his side, it is a good bet he'll clinch the job.

This group of 25 sophomores which are moving up includes a couple of nifties. They are Hurdie Phillips, a halfback, and Bill Tillett, a good prospect for quarter. These boys are just two of a long list of good prospects and are expected to become critical replacements for graduated stars or key relief men providing depth for the team.

CLARENCE ROBERTS

TOM ROBERTSON

BOB SHARP

WILLIE SMITH

Among the six boys who are graduating will be the two ends. This means Coach Yeager must develop a complete new set of ends, but again, the replacement material seems to be available in the group coming up.

In the backfield, Taylor at full and Camp at half will be the corps around which Coach Yeager must build. The loss of Goedde seems pretty well replaceable by Waldo who played excellent ball last year. But here again, conjecture isn't fact. The boys must prove themselves.

In summarization, with 13-15 boys coming back from last year's squad and some 20 to 25 sophomores moving up, Coach Yeager seems assured of a squad membership of 35 solid prospects. Add to this any new material developed or moving in and up—not too dark an outlook for 1956. We hope Coach Yeager and his boys realize the ambition of bringing a first football championship to Central. Could be.

Freshman Football

Central's freshmen won the first league championship as a representative of our new school. In winning, they compiled a record for future teams to try to surpass. Our record was seven wins, no losses, and one tie. The neophytes scored a total of 132 points while holding their opponents to a mere 6. Only one team managed to score against them. Samuel Ach broke their unblemished record in the last game. The boys racked up such scores as 19-0 against Western Hills, 14-0 against Walnut Hills, 0-0 against Woodard. Then the boys seemed to get into high gear—14-0 against Cutter, 26-0 against Hughes, 34-0 against Porter, 18-0 against Withrow, and in the championship game 7-6 against Samuel Ach. It was a most successful year for Coach Kuehn and his hard working charges. This group of boys can make quite a name for themselves in the next three years if they can be held together. It looks like Central is on its way.

Reserve Football

Our Reserve football team, composed of approximately thirty sophomores, completed a highly successful season, winning five, tying one, and losing one. Our reserves defeated Western Hills 20-7, McNicholas 20-7, Hughes 7-6, Woodard 20-6, and Withrow 20-14. They lost to Taft 6-7 and tied with Walnut Hills 6-6. With approximately twenty boys from the reserve squad expected to move up and about twenty boys returning from last year's successful varsity squad Central should be represented next year by one of the finest varsity teams in Southwest Ohio. Mr. Jim Clark, head basketball coach, doubled as coach of this fine organization. Mr. Clark's ability to instill a spirit of keen competitiveness in his teams undoubedly contributed much to the success of the group. The boy's willingness to spend long hours in gruelling practice and scrimmage hardened the boys for the tough job of spirited competition.

The varsity basketball squad with "Whimpy" Owens as the only letterman from last year, completed a fairly successful season breaking even in 18 games. Highlight of the season was a clean sweep over the three GCL teams on the schedule. Owens and Goedde received recognition on several Class A All-Star teams.

The Central Knight Basketeers, although considered "small," in these days of the 6′ 6″ boys, ended the 1955-1956 season in a dramatic fashion, bowing to the Big Blue of Hamilton, top-seeded the state, 50-48, on a twenty foot basket with only four seconds remaining. Coach Clark's "crew" finished the regular season with a 9-9 record, which is considered a successful season in most leagues, and probably experienced their peak performance against Hamilton, thus climaxing the 19-game skein. Hamilton went on to the semi-finals.

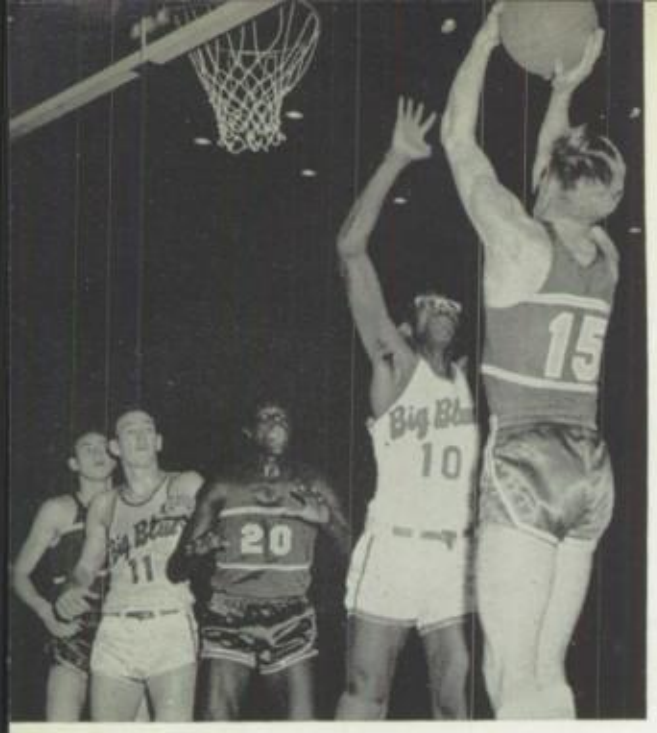
In the PHSL competition, which was characterized by excellent performances by all the league teams, with two of those teams, Hughes and Taft receiving state ranking, the Knights finished with a 4-7 record.

Against the Greater Cincinnati League, comprised of the four major Catholic High Schools, and long a power in the city basketball picture, Central emerged with a 3-0 mark, quite an accomplishment in itself.

Our building program is progressing satisfactorily and next year for the first time there will be keen competition for berths on the varsity with 22 boys returning from this year's varsity and reserve squads. To be a champion requires just a little extra effort.



Two more points for the Knights

Wimpy Owens drops one in the bucket

We hope there are a number of boys among the 22 returning who aspire to be champions. Chief prospects returning from this year's varsity squad are guards Clark, Larry, and Hunt; and forwards Scharz, Elsasser, and Oliver. From the reserve squad, Tillett, Stanley, Almon, Sykes, Hendrixson, Wickersham, Heming, DeZarn, Covert, Malady, and McKinney are the chief prospects. The team will again be hampered by lack of height with no player taller than six feet one inch. However, prospects for taller teams in the future seem assured as Willie Castleberry 6 feet 4 inches, Mel Zurick 6 feet 4 inches, and Bob Linde 6 feet 2 inches, move up from the Junior High team.

All in all, the future of Central High School in basketball seems very good. The basketball coaching staff, Mr. Clark, Mr. Meridith, and Mr. Yeager, hope that the ultimate will be that of championships for our high school.

Central High School's Athletic Program, now in its third year of building, is beginning to produce results. The Southwestern District of the Ohio High School Athletic Association has produced several of the State Champions in Basketball in the past decade, and it is the goal of Central High School to produce Cincinnati's first State Champion in many years.

The Knight Reserves, losers of four heart-breaking league games, three of them by two points and the other by three points, finished the City League Schedule with an 8-4 record, good for Second Place, behind Woodward High School, whom they had beaten during the season.

Reserve letter winners were Bo Tillett, Willie Sykes, Jack Hendrickson, Leroy Almon, Charles Stanley, Don Wickersham, and Mitchell McKinney.

Reserve Basketball

Freshman Basketball

The freshman basketball team had another good season. The results were the same as 1954-55. We played fifteen games; won eleven, and lost four. Two of our games were lost in overtime periods. High scorer for the season was Dave Carr with 139 points. Other top scorers were Mel Zurick, 83; Bob Linde, 64; Dennis Dase, 56; Len Orme, 55; Bill Castleberry, 45; James Keys, 32; Bob Hutchinson, 10; and Ron Wilson, 5. This year's team is the tallest freshmen team that has ever been at Central; three boys were over six feet. If these boys live up to their potential, our basketball team will really go places.

Over sixty varsity and junior high boys reported for track. Of this group only eight are lettermen from last year. They were Ralph Carpenter, pole vault; Tom McNeal, sprinter; Randy Kautz, middle distance runner; Walter Tucker, sprinter; Kenny Kloth, middle distance runner; Tom Cook, sprinter and middle distance runner; Jon Camp, sprinter; and Big Bill Lynch, shot put. There are several other men who were on the team last year and have a chance to do much to help. They are John Brown, Preston Taylor, and Larry Wetenkamp, junior and senior respectively.

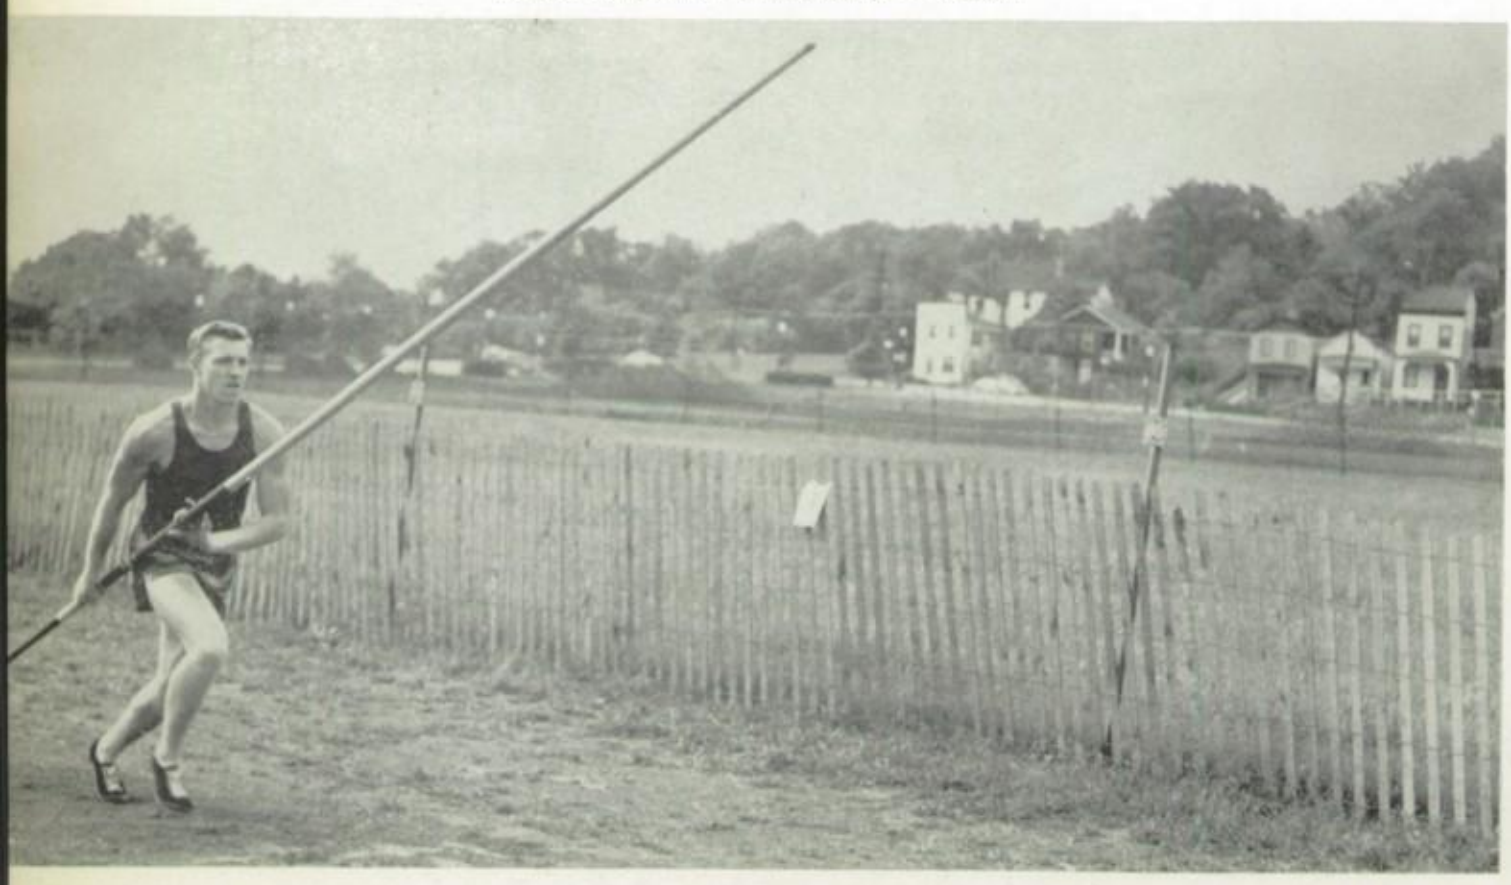
Coach Kuehn reports that his squad has not been properly tested in suitable events, and up to the time of this article, it has been impossible to assign men to their proper events. We have about fifteen sophomores from our freshman squad and new boys to the school this year that can help and may earn a place on the team. Some of these boys are Leroy Almon, Dwayne Oliver, Jerry Hayes, John Seymour. Abraham Crayon, Willie Sykes, Bill Heming, Ted Bailey, and Mitchell McKinney. Several other boys also show promise but need a little encouragement to bring them out.

At the present time our track is literally torn up. We are hoping to put it to good use in time, but at present we are working in the gym and outside the building.

Mr. Kuehn is assisted by Mr. Roy Lagaly who will also work with the freshman squad. Roy's fine work last year may pay off big this year.

It is a spirited squad which wants to win; and with hard work, a little experience and determination, it will be a winning outfit.

Ralph Carpenter, champion pole vaulter



Central High Track

Central's track team took 2nd honors in three big meets this year. The first meet for the cinder boys to capture 2nd place was in the Cincinnati Public High Invitational meet. Our boys broke two records. The 880 yard relay team broke the first record by running the 880 Relay in 1:34.7 sec. The team was composed of Preston Taylor, Tom Cook, Walter Tucker and Leroy Olmon. The other record was in the shot put and big Bill Lynch put the shot 50′ 5″.

The second meet we took runner-up honors was the P.H.S.L. meet which showed we had possibilities of capturing the district crown. As it worked out we would have done better than second, but three top boys hurt themselves and our chances were slim. As it worked out, some of the other boys took up the slack. We have eight boys going to the state meet and we are sure we will score. On the whole our track season was a very good season.

Jr. High Track

The junior high track team next year will have to work hard to come up to this year's youngsters. The long delay in starting, due to bad rainy weather, will mean that Mr. Lagaly will be hard at work. He must find some boys to replace our graduating lettermen. So far, we are of the opinion that we do have an outside chance to continue our building program. We have some advanced notices on a few of our youngsters and our only hope is that they can do what we think they can.

Several boys who look like future champions in the field events are, Denise Dase in the shot put, Clifford Wetenkamp, pole vault, and Fred Chasteen, in the hurdle races. In the running events we have Bob Brown, Paul Keller, Charley Torrey, Robert Bond, Don Hutchinson and Bill Castleberry.

The 880 relay team of Chasteen, Brown, Torrey, and Keller won several relay events in the fine time of 1.51. The 440 relay team of Hutchinson, Castleberry, Bond, and Torrey finished second and third in most of the triangular and championship meets.

Three boys who will be up with the varsity next year and should help in scoring points, will be Dennis Dase (who is close to the shot put record), Chasteen in the hurdles, and Wetenkamp in the pole vault.

Coach Meridith discusses the coming meet with Ken Kloth and Randy Kautz.

The 1955-56 edition of the Central High School Cross Country Harriers, again maintained their fine showing in the PHSL competition, thus continuing the long span of years during which the Knight runners have remained in the top brackets of city competition.

The Knight Harriers placed third behind Walnut Hills and Taft High Schools, in a year of very close competition. Central, however, did not fare so well in the District Meet, placing out of the qualifying three teams. Purcell, the District Meet winner, had edged out the Knight Harriers by one point in a Dual Meet earlier in the season, thus showing the closeness of the District competition.

Seven boys qualified for the Varsity "C" letter. Of these boys, four were seniors. The "C" winners were Ken Kloth and Randy Kautz, co-captains; Tom McNeal and Tom Cook, seniors. Ted Bailey and Mitchell McKinney, both promising sophomores and a junior, Ray Walton, were the other "C" letter winners.

Reserve letter winners were Mike Barger, Charles Howland, Don Wickersham, Oliver Brownlee, Art Coleman, Bob Zadek, Jim Richardson, and Jim Coston.

A Quitter Never Wins A Winner Never Quits

In talking to Coach "Tony" Chiodi we learned that he hates to lose in any sport. He doesn't care too much for a good loser. He cares less for a sore loser. What he really cares for is a group of boys who are inspired to win all games and will hustle for him at all times. He likes to instill in the boys the spirit of a true competitor and be a hard loser.

It is too early in the season to make predictions as to how our baseball team is going to do in the win and lose column but you can rest assured that the boys will be hustling all season long and playing for the PHSL championship, which the boys feel that they will win this year. "I am willing to give all my baseball knowledge to help them. We are looking forward to tough competition from Withrow and Western Hills but we are going to show them who the tough competition in the PHSL is going to be," states Coach Chiodi.

He went on to say, "We have seven boys back from last year's varsity team who were regular players. We are looking forward to the boys who have made the team to fill the shoes of the senior boys that we lost yast year. Last year the team came in second place in the PHSL race and this year we are going to better that mark by coming in first place. We lost out to the State Championship team Elder in the tournament last year by the score of 7 to 4 in which the Knights should have won. Mark my word, we are going to be a winning team." Coach Tony Chiodi's reliable pitchers this year will be lettermen from last season. They are Bucky Elsasser, Gerry Starkey, and Bill Goedde. He also has some likely prospects in sophomores this season. Other returning lettermen this season are D. Toler, B. Pyles, B. Wyatt, D. Walsh, and B. Sharp. We also have many juniors who are looking very good in the early season practice.

For the second consecutive year Central's gymnastic team captured the city championship. Lead to victory by the expert coaching of Mr. Robert Sarsfield, Central's varsity team scored a total of 213 points, almost twice the points scored by their closest competitor Hughes. Woodward, with 13 points, finished third.

In the Cincinnati Turners High School meet Central's varsity gymnasts again were victorious with Ralph Carpenter and Billy Fisher finishing first and third respectively. Virgil Ecton and Calvin Hargis took the top two positions for the Reserve team. The varsity gymnasts earned 72½ points and 69 points were earned by the Reserves. In the annual YMCA High School meet, the varsity scored 82 points and the reserves 106.

Gym Team

The outstanding senior gymnasts were: Ralph Carpenter, Larry Keller, Joe Broadus, Earl Dwelly, Earl Lillie, Walter Tucker, Jack Baird, and Hershel Rose. Carpenter, captain of the team, is one of the most outstanding all-around gymnasts in any Cincinnati high school. Keller, with his excellent performance on the side horse, holds the title of being the first Cincinnati high school pupil to perform the quintuple rear-vault dismount. Broadus, after an injury last year, made a great come-back in tumbling and on the long horse. Dwelly rendered excellent performances on the horizontal bar and the parallel bars. Lillie will be remembered for his showmanship and form demonstrated in tumbling, free exercise and on the long horse. Tucker, who is a champion rope climber, also performed well on the still rings. Baird, rendering a fine performance on the parallel bars, also succeeded in mastering the difficult "peach basket." Rose' superb side horse and tumbling work will not be forgotten. He took third place in the Central States AAU Meet.

Stanley Wilkymacky, Ricky Hoog check the scoring

Bowling

The varsity team, coached by Mr. Lund, finished in fifth place in the Cincinnati Public High School Bowling League. The team's season average was 758 pins per game.

Central's top pin getter was Tom Bock who finished the season with a 169 pin average. In one of the inter-school games, he really found the groove and finished the game with 229 pins.

One of the highlights of the Central High School bowling season was the tournament between the Varsity Team and members of the CHS Faculty. The former being composed of Stanley Wilkymacky, Jake Hilpotsteiner, Ricky Hoog, Dick Zeigler and Tom Bock. The men's team included Messrs. Jones, Lund, Roman, Weaver and Zeigler. The tournament ended in a tie, each team winning one game.

Several neophyte keglers are on the rolls of Central's Bowling team. They include Jake Hilpotsteiner, Stanley Wilkymacky and George Mannix. These boys have improved throughout the season and will probably become experts next year.

George Mannix, Dick Zeigler, Tom Carroll, Kenny Cooper, Jake Hilpolsteiner, Ricky Hoog, Mr. Lund.

Coach R. Lagaly and Captain William Gehring plan for coming meet.

RESULTS OF DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP

1. Walnut Hills	59	6. Woodward	17

3. Central	30	8. Middletown	5
4. Saint Xavier	28	9. Western Hills	3
5. Purcell	20	10. Taft	3

The swimming team once again made a very excellent showing in the city championship by placing third. The team placed third also in our local district meet against eleven other schools.

The outstanding achievement of the team this year was the great diving done by Al Warren and John Deininger who finished first and second in all the meets this year, including the finals of the state championship at Ohio State University.

Swimming

They were proclaimed as the two best divers ever seen in Ohio high school competition by the chief diving judge, who was a former Olympics diver.

Our swimmers, while turning in faster times than last year, still could not do any better than third place in the city or district championship.

Captain Bill Gehring and Jack Warndorf were our two best swimmers for the year. Both were second place swimmers in the 200 yard free-style and 100 yard back stroke. In the other events, Oda Marcum was a fourth placer in the 100 yard breast stroke; Ray Phillips, fourth place in the 50 yard free-style; Jerry Weimer, fifth in the 150 yard individual medley; and Bill Meyer, fifth in the 200 yard free-style.

However, with some good help from our fine freshmen team of Fred Chasteen, Ben McIntosh, Bob Hensley, Ralph Redemier, and Frank Gleisinger (who finished second in our last city meet, but only one half point behind the winning team) our chances are very good for Central's first swimming city championship for next year.

Some of the other varsity swimmers who did not score any points this year, but will be back next year, are breast strokers Frank Feldhaus and Dan Sullivan; back strokers Rodger Bohsancurt, Phil Hein, and Charley Young; free-stylers Milton Gaskins, Charles Keith, John Bitzenhofer, Hurdie Phillips, and Fred Fox. In the individual medley we have James Paxton and two other good medley men who were out all year due to illness: Tom Meyer and Ken Fricke.

Physical Education

Physical Education is designed to provide outlets for competitive urges. This is accomplished through intra and intermural competition. The program strengthens the moral character, maintains physical fitness, teaches wholesome uses of leisure time, and provides opportunities to participate as part of a team or as a spectator. Girls and boys participate in the program.

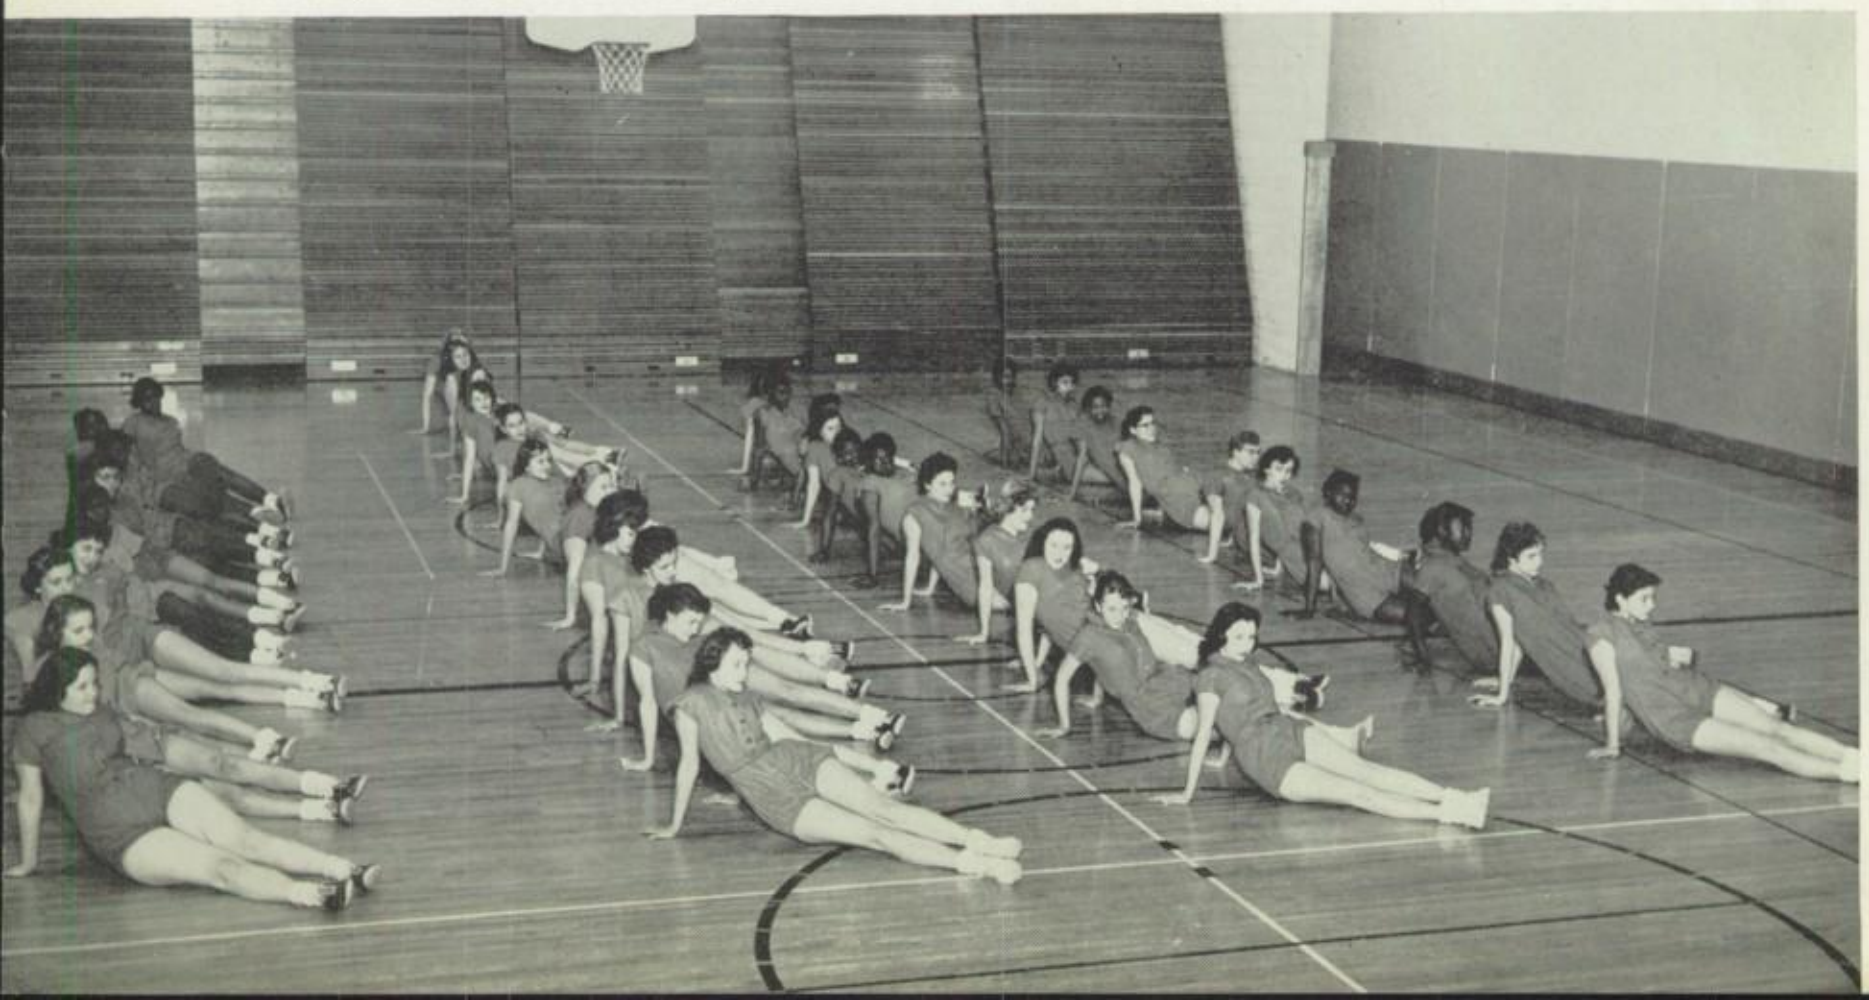
Physical education and health are closely related, and they are often considered as one. Getting along with others, preparation for marriage, and the responsibilities of citizenship are the topics included in this program.

The techniques of Red Cross First Aid and Life Saving are offered on both the junior and senior levels.

The program includes class instruction in minor games, volleyball, swimming, fundamentals of the various sports, apparatus work and tumbling, track and field events, softball and others.

Intramural competition is very popular among the students because of the keenness of the competitors.

Girls' Physical Education Class training includes calisthenics, dancing and games as well as health instruction



Irene Spottswood, Janet Moreland, Joyce Lanter, Lillian Bailey.

An organized program with the object of promoting girls' athletics, is the purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association of Central. All girls are eligible for membership and for participation in as many activities as they desire. The activities offered are numerous and varied permitting a wide range of selection from the more hearty sports to the milder forms of athletics.

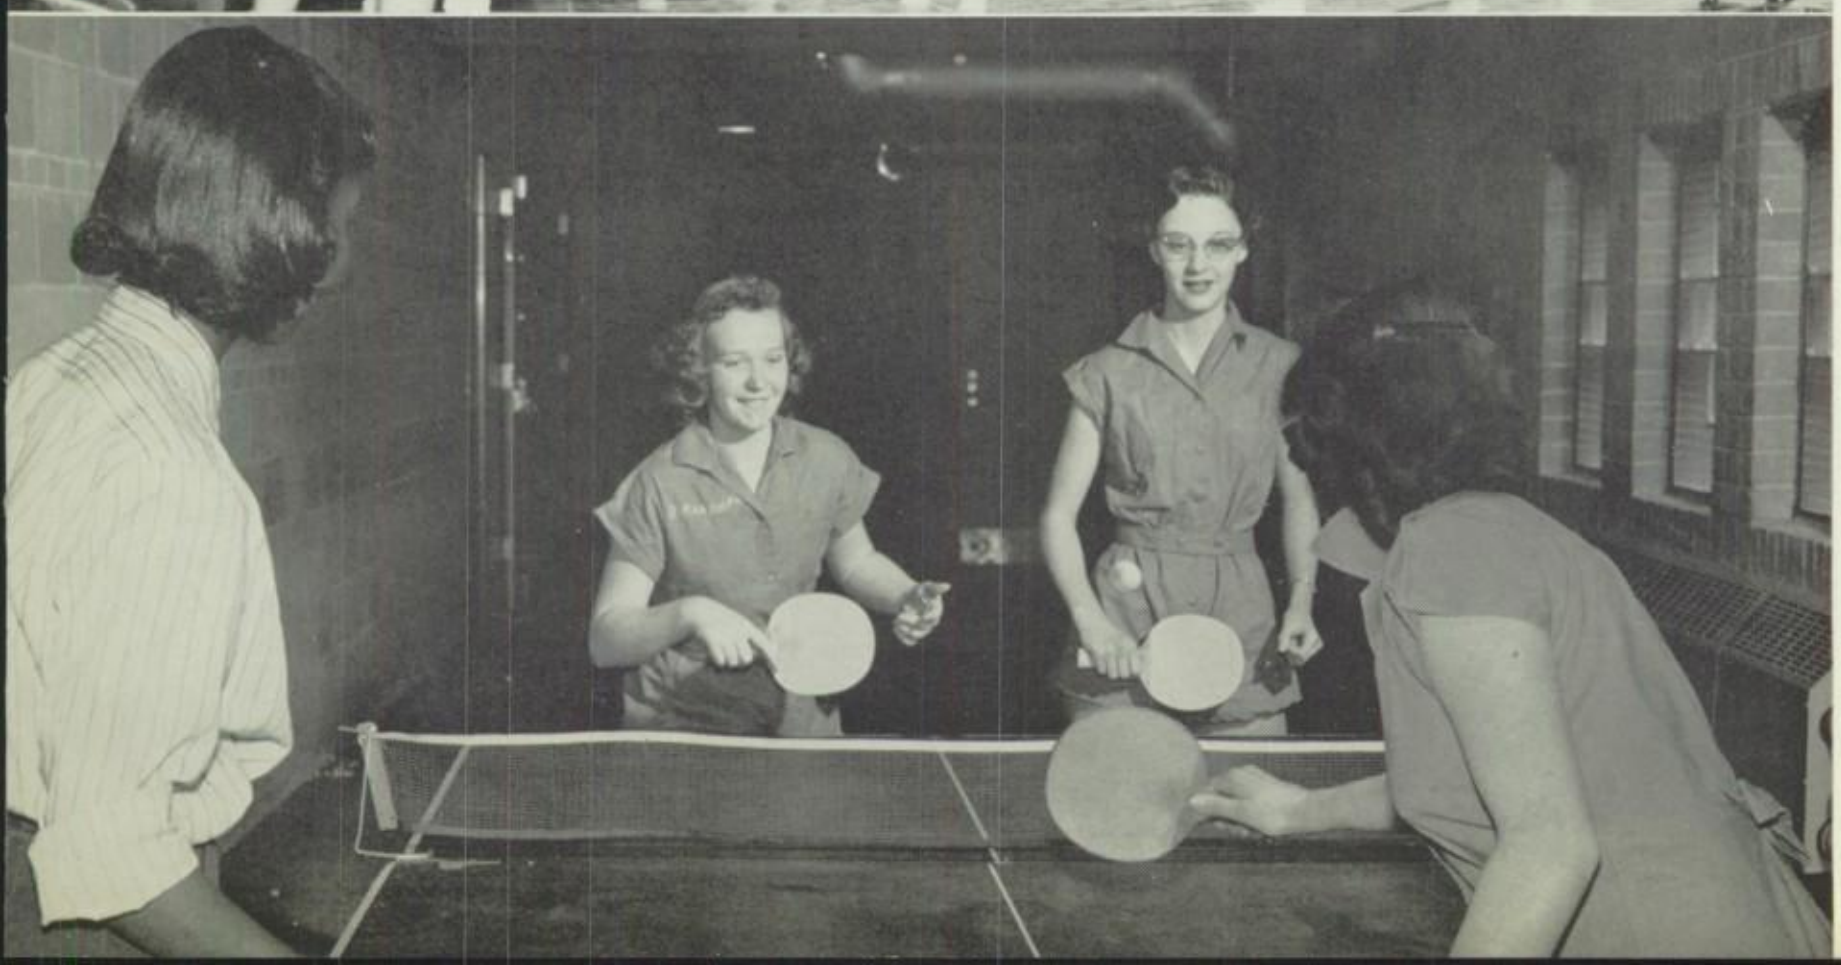
The program is under the direction of the girls Physical Education Department which includes Miss Roberta Stagge, Mrs. Edna Rehkamp, Miss Verlie Meyers, and Mrs. Bea Jacobson. The Girls' Athletic Association sponsors modern dancing, tap dancing, social dancing, and square dancing as well as sports.

The girls are given an opportunity to officiate and participate in the activities, to develop an appreciation for sports and games, and to grow in ability, character, and sportsmanlike conduct. The GAA represents Central in the interscholastic playdays held each sports season for the girls throughout the city in the Cincinnati Public Schools. Awards are received by the girls for the quality and amount of participation.



Hockey can be gentle and ladylike

In the autumn when the leaves begin to fall and sport their coats of red, yellow, brown, and gold, and start their downward journey, the sound of clashing sticks and the excited yells of breathless girls give indication that hockey is underway. The girls learn the arts and skills of dribbling, tackling, and guarding. They participated in the Playday at Western Hills with other Cincinnati high schools.

Miss Verlie Meyers of the Physical Education Department was in charge of the high-spirited, ambitious hockey teams. It was her task to supply the girls who turned out for the games with all the necessary where-with-all needed to play and win at the sport. All of this energetic activity took place after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays, as do the other GAA sports.

Archery

Archery, a new and very popular spring and fall sport, is ranked high among the favorites by the girls here at Central. When it was first introduced as part of the GAA Program two years ago, it looked as if it were going to be quite unpopular with the young ladies. As a result of being new to archery, many of the girls received black and blue arms, sore muscles, and blistered fingers.

A tournament was held between the different teams comprised of the members of the GAA archery class. Winners in the tournament were selected on the basis of acquiring the highest total of points.

Mrs. Bea Jacobson was in charge of the spring archery clinic and Mrs. Rehkamp was in charge of the fall clinic. The girls took part in the Spring Sports Day at Lunken Airport along with the other sections of GAA.

Miss Stagge gives instruction in the art of archery

Basketball, winter's most popular sport

In the winter, new sports of GAA loom on the horizon. Then, the girls engage in play within the walls of the gymnasium. Basketball is this winter sport. It is another of the sports that is well liked by many. Both the girls in the physical education department and in the after-school program participate in this sport. The after-school program has the purpose of building the teams up for competition in the intramural tournaments. Teams were selected in such a way as to distribute the skill evenly and fairly throughout the competition. On basketball playday at Withrow and Walnut Hills, the intramural teams were divided into four teams consisting of the most capable competitors. In the resulting competition between the schools, Central won two and lost four.

Miss Meyers and Mrs. Rehkamp took charge of the learning and practicing maneuvers.

One of the regulations for participation in Spring Sports Day is the rule that teams must take part in the intermural games first. Also every player must have a heart examination before becoming a member of the team. In order for a girl to participate on Sports Day, she must have played in at least three fourths of the season's games. This also applies to the receiving of a letter.

SHEILA KOESTER

Swimming

An all-year-round activity, which is one of GAA's most popular sports, is swimming. The swimming facilities, namely the beautifully tiled swimming pool, is indoors and, therefore, can be used throughout the entire school year. Swimming sessions were held on Mondays and Wednesdays after school where many girls improved their aquatic skills during these practice periods. The more experienced swimmers were selected to represent Central in swim meets, which were held here at Central. The reason for this is because Central's pool is the largest in the city and, therefore, much better for such meets. In fact, our pool is the largest one in the state of Ohio.

Included in the swimming program is a course in Junior and Senior Red Cross Life-Saving. The swimming show, "Fish Tales," was held the middle of January. It was under the direction of Miss Roberta Stagge and the student direction of Sheila Koester. "Fish Tales," developed into a splendid performance.

Just as the soft sweet songs of the robin heralds the coming of spring, the cry of "strike three, yer out" rushes in the GAA softball season. Softball and volleyball head the list as two of GAA's more popular sports.

The girls practice twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays after school hours. As the days go by the intramural team competition is very keen and it provides for excellent exercise and unlimited fun. The different teams from the various Cincinnati high schools climax the softball season at Lunken Airport. Credit is given towards membership in GAA for participation in softball.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Edna Rehkamp, the game has developed into one of the better played sports of the GAA Program.

In the spring of the year the GAA sponsors its annual banquet and dance. The parents of the girls are invited to attend the dinner. The dinner usually resolves into a frolic of fun and laughter at which many of the members demonstrate real showmanship in dances and other entertaining features.

Softball

Badminton and Tumbling

Badminton is considered one of the several sports that gives the best opportunity for expressing individualism which is coveted by every human being. Large numbers of persons have enrolled in the tournaments being sponsored by the GAA. The games include singles and doubles.

A number of girls in GAA are learning the skills of gymnastics. To become a member of the gymnastic team, one does not have to be an expert. All that is needed is will, the capacity, and a feeling of doing something constructive. The more difficult skills, chest rolls and handsprings, are mastered after the learning of the basics of gymnastics such as forward rolls and head stands. These are later combined into stunts.

After the girls see their hard efforts shape into well-done accomplishments, they become filled with a sense of pride.

It is this feeling of personal and team pride that is so important in anything the individual or team does, and is essential to every phase of life.

Cendra, Central's dramatics club, was organized by several students at the beginning of 1954. The first three letters CEN were taken from Central and the last three letters DRA were taken from dramatics—thus, the club's name, Cendra.

Cendra was organized especially for students interested in acting, staging, script writing, make-up, and other theatrical jobs connected with the dramatic art.

To become a member, a person must have an interest in dramatics. It is the aim of the organization to encourage an appreciation of the stage and its personnel.

The group is under the supervision of Mrs. Sylvia Martin. Meetings are held the second and the fourth Wednesday of each month. Last year's production "Ever Since Eve," was a great success. This year "Head In The Clouds" was presented. The cast included Charlotte Harney, Bob Speak, Gerry Starkey, Jim Breiling, Fritz Feldhaus, Kathy O'Connell, Elsie Winters, Judy Winters, Mary Roth, Bob Evers, John Symmes, Janet Powell, Ruby Fulton, Paul Raines, Ken Armstrong, Don O'Banion, Gloria Stewart, Charlotte Noel, Peter Lind, Sherry Brown, and David Gerard.

An important service agency is the Audio-Visual Aids Club. The members aid the teachers whenever they wish to present materials of learning with more economy of time, greater richness, and with a higher degree of graphic or pictorial representation than can be acquired in the traditional classroom instructional procedure.

Sound and silent movies, strip and slide films, sound recordings, opaque projection, and reproducing equipment are included in the Visual Aids program. Members of the Audio-Visual Aids Club are taught to care for and operate the many different types of equipment. Techniques of operating this equipment are taught here at Central. The club is under the supervision of Mr. Leonard Himmelmann.

Cincinnati Central Chapter is one of the many chapters of the Vocational Industrial Club of Ohio. This organization is rapidly spreading to Vocational and Industrial Arts schools in other states, and will soon be nation wide.

Students who are interested in the arts and crafts find in this organization others who have like interests and their club provides them an opportunity for social, recreational and educational activities.

We again entertained Lawrenceburg, Indiana Chapter. We were proud to show them our new school, its shops, gym, auditorium, swimming pool and lunchroom. Before they returned home we enjoyed a dance in our auxiliary lunchroom which we decorated for the occasion.

Our trip to the annual convention at Columbus was made by chartered Greyhound bus. Mr. Schultz our driver was a fine fellow and we enjoyed our trip. The Ohio State University was our host for this meeting.

VOCATIONAL INDUSTRIAL CLUB OF OHIO

The Vic Club

The dance VIC sponsored in November was a huge success. We have another dance planned for April 5.

Our representatives, Nancy McCoy and Ruth Johnston, visited our State Capitol on March 6 and had the pleasure of meeting Lieutenant Governor John W. Brown. They invited him to visit our school and talk to the student body. They, with other representatives from chapters in the state, visited the Supreme Court, the Senate chambers, the House of Representatives chambers, the Treasury Department and other interesting departments of our State government.

On March 24 we participated in the first South Regional Meeting held at Washington Court House. We helped plan this meeting and provided some of the entertainment.

We competed in the State contests at our Spring Convention.

We also sponsored Central High School's Employee-Employer banquet. At this time the co-op students entertained their employers. This banquet will be long remembered by those who attended.

The members of this organization are: Fred Allen, John Baker, Jeanine Brockhuis, Sherry Brown, Vashti Cannon, Darlene Chaney, Elizabeth Dooley, Bonita Dunaway, Arthur Follmer, Sarah Glover, Barbara Harrison, Myra Harrison, Betty L. Guides

During the school year Central has many visitors. One group of visitors arrives in the spring. This group consists of eighth, ninth, and tenth graders who desire more information about high school subjects to help in planning their future educational program. To act as host and hostess for these groups is the job of our guides.

They are selected on the basis of citizenship and good scholastic record. They are required to have a "B" average in their school subjects. The guides give unstintingly of their time and energy for a period of over two weeks during which time they go through a training program followed by a week of guiding our visitors over this tremendous building. Many times during the year the guides are called upon to escort smaller groups of visitors from colleges, out of town schools, and business organizations.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll, an international honor society for high school journalism students, is in its second year at Central High School. Its purpose is to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism and allied fields. To become a member a student (1) must be in the upper third of his class, (2) he must be at least a junior, (3) he must have done superior work in some phase of journalism.

The Louis Bromfield Chapter of Quill and Scroll was organized at Central High School on April 10, 1955 by the faculty advisers of the Pendulum and the Knight Life. Messrs. Lund, Moschel, Roman and Sofko were the sponsors of the first organization.

The initiation of Quill and Scroll members took place this year on April 19, 1956, in the auditorium before an audience of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Mr. Tower presented each initiate with the key of Quill and Scroll. Messrs. Moschel, Sofko, Felix and Mrs. Clift are sponsors of this organization.

Members Are: Jim Adkins, Elva Bradley, Wilma Bradshaw, Carol Chapman, Judy Crandell, Violet Davis, Art Follmer, Carol Hammons, Betty Hill, Norma Miller, Glenna Moore, Don O'Banion, Christine Pappashales, Frieda Pappashales, Carol Pennington, Carolyn Poole, Mary Wade.

Youth For Christ

The YFC is an international organization with active chapters in three different countries. It is represented in thirty-six of the forty-eight states which make up our country. The club had its inception almost immediately after Central High School was opened.

Club membership is offered to any Central High School student who is interested in becoming a part of Christian Fellowship. Meetings are held weekly on Tuesday after school hours in the Lecture Room. The president may call a meeting at any time.

Some of the activities that YFC sponsors are worship, prayer, Bible study, and fellowship. The members participate in a Bible Quiz with other YFC groups throughout the Greater Cincinnati area. Recreational activities such as picnics, socials, skating parties, hayrides, wiener roasts, and movies are other activities sponsored by this group. The theme of the club is taken from 1 Timothy 4:12 and reads as follows: "Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the believer." The colors of the club are red and yellow. The faculty advisor is Mr. James Mussman.

The Youth for Christ officers are: Sue Holland, President; Sherry Brown, Vice-President; Glyndora Dalton, Secretary; Pat Wiles, Treasurer; Virginia Fagin, Song Leader.

Annual Representatives

The homeroom annual representatives are a group of students who perform a very important service to the school. The duty of these individuals is to handle the business of the homeroom in school-wide matters which pertain to the annual. These students take orders, make reports, collect money, attend meetings and generally report directly to Mr. Moschel or to his staff. The service performed by these individuals is essential and merits recognition. At the end of the year they deliver the annuals to the students in their homerooms. The annual representatives also keep their homerooms posted on the news and progress of the annual. They help by selling tickets to the Sweetheart Ball which is a yearly dance sponsored by the PENDULUM to raise funds to defray the expenses of the annual.

The annual representative who promotes the most annual sales in his or her homeroom receives a suitable reward at the end of the year. The representatives receive no other credit than this except for the recognition we now give. The group meets periodically for instructions. They have no officers. The sponsor of this group is Mr. Ralph Moschel.

The Central High Y-teens, like all of the Y-teen groups, is affiliated with the Cincinnati Y.W.C.A. The principles of this group are based on Christian Fellowship coupled with wholesome and healthful activities aimed to promote character development, growth in friendship towards all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the love and knowledge of God.

The club's meetings are held at the local Y.W.C.A. Programs alternate between discussion groups and speakers, and project programs. The group believes that fun together, coupled with service to others offers them a wide variety of activities. Bowling, for example, is one of their favorite recreational activities. This group is one of the most active among the girls' clubs. This year the leadership has been taken over by Miss JoAnn Hughes.

Alpha Chi Gamma

Alpha Chi Gamma is one of the social clubs for girls here at Central. Miss Margaret Ohanian is the club's advisor. There are twenty-one members from grades ten, eleven, and twelve. To be eligible for membership, a girl must be loyal, cooperative, and a good school citizen. She also must have grades above C.

Alpha Chi Gamma's main project is decorating the school at Christmas time which gives our school a very home-like atmosphere.

The club meets at the members' homes bi-monthly and occasionally at school.

The dues for the first year of membership are $5.00 and $3.00 afterward. Initiation fee is $5.00.

Members are: Robert Campbell, Tom Carroll, Roosevelt Durrett, Kenneth Glover, Juanita Hicks, Ray Hoff, Ron Kelly, Paul Lange, Becky Lytle, Joe Marsala, Jacqueline Newman, Jim Nichols, Don O'Banion, Alice Ryan, David Shea, Bob Speak, and Carl Wriston.

The Clik Club, the camera club of Central High School, was organized in September, 1954. The club has played an important role for the students who are actively interested in photography. Any student who is interested in photography will find belonging to this organization an advantage if he wishes to exchange prints and ideas, to enter contests and exhibitions, and to have fun with the camera.

The club meets at school once each week for a laboratory meeting which consists of taking interesting pictures, developing the negatives, and improving printing techniques. The club meets once a month for a business meeting to discuss financial problems, etc.

One project of the club was selling Easter eggs at ten cents each in order to earn the twenty-five dollars necessary to pay the engraving fee to the annual.

This year Mr. Harold Sterne was faculty advisor of the Clik Club. He was very helpful to the members who knew very little about taking pictures, developing them, etc.

Knight Life Representatives

Assisting in the weekly circulation of the student newspaper, the "Knight Life," were 80 homeroom representatives. These pupils did much to assure that subscribers were informed of the latest news events of the school.

Their duties also included individual sales to students who were not regular subscribers. The large number of Package Plan subscriptions in each homeroom, however, considerably facilitated this part of their task.

The excellent performance rendered by the "Knight Life" representatives is worthy of the emulation of any student activity group. Their cooperation was valued highly by homeroom teachers throughout the school.

The "Knight Life" representatives are: Lois Abt, Fred Allen, Mark Allen, Joyce Asbury, Gloria Baker, Michael Barger, Gloria Bedford, Rochelle Blackburn, Anna Mae Bledsoe, Elva Bradley, Margie Brinker, Louise Bugge, Arlene Burck, Dale Cassett, Darlene Chaney, Juanita Chiles, Gloria Clevenger, Betty Cooley, Norma Cordell, Emma Marie Corson, Nancy Crowthers, Sam Cullum, Ronnie Curtis, Judith Drake, JoAnn Elliott, Joyce Ellis, Genell Evans, Jerry Farrington, Roger Flannery, Jewel Fitzwater, John Gibson, Shirley Glover, George Greer, Janet Hall, Barbara Harrison, Peggy Hayes, Donna Heineman, Beverly Henschen, Melva Hess, Betty Hill, Danny Hill, Joan Hurst, Jean Jamison, Robert Jones, Ronald Jones, Patricia Kappner, John King, Robert Koch, Carol Kolde, Mary Korte, Mary Joe Lee, Allen Lindsay, Charles Longbottom, Nancy Lowry, Wanda Mahan, Marlene Marshall, Janet Merz, Bill Mistler, Bonnie Mitchell, Irene Morgan, Bob Morrell, Ruth Morris, Peggy Mullinix, Christine Pappashales, Elverett Peniff, Charles Prather, Jerry Reisinger, Frances Richardson, Vernon Rose, Alice Ryan, Ollie Scott, JoAnn Shackelford, Sylvia Stanford, Carol Trovillo, Mary Wade, Jane Williams, Ray Wood, Charles Yocum, Delois Young, and Joe Zwissler.

Bob Sharp, John Brown, Mr. Irvin Kuehn, Gerry Starkey, Jack Brunner, Larry Wetenkamp.

The "C" Club is in its second year here at Central. The club was organized by Mr. Irvin Kuehn and the lettermen from the various teams engaged in intermural and interleague athletics.

The annual Faculty-Senior Basketball Game and Dad's Day Football Game are two of the events sponsored by the "C" Club. It also sponsors a banquet for all the boys who have lettered in baseball, football, track, swimming, bowling, cross country, basketball, gymnastics, and Rifle Club.

The objectives of the "C" Club are (1) to work toward a betterment of conditions for sports and sportsmanship at Central, (2) to bring about a better relationship between students, faculty, other school and outside organizations, (3) to be gentlemen at all times in halls, classrooms, and outside of school, (4) to better the conduct of Central students at athletic contests by our leadership, (5) to cooperate with coaches on all athletic activities, and (6) to encourage boys of high character, morals and athletic ability to attend Central High School.

To be eligible for membership one must be a male student, be passing in all subjects, and must have earned a varsity letter from any sport giving such awards under rules of the Cincinnati Board of Control of Athletics, Ohio High School Athletic Association and Central High School.

An award is given to the outstanding senior boy athlete of the year at the banquet, which is held the first part of June. To become eligible for this award, a boy must earn at least one letter award a year, be honest, trustworthy, dependable and sincere, have a sense of humor, be loyal, friendly, cheerful and have consideration for others. He must also be scholastically above average.

Coach Schmidt accepts $275 bath agitator for the Athletic Department from officers of the "C" Club (Brown, Starkey, Brunner).

Carol Kolde, Pat Grant, Sheila Koester, Arlene Burck, Josie Foley, Shirley Lamb, Joyce Lanter.

One of the social clubs at Central is Pi Chi. It is composed of members from grades ten through twelve. You must have an average grade of "C" before you can become a member. This is the third year for Pi Chi. They have mapped a course of activities which includes such things as supporting school projects, entering into school activities, and setting examples of meritorious conduct. Good citizenship and personal charm are stressed as models of conduct.

Puggy, the Monkey, is the mascot of this organization. The colors of the club are powder blue and black. The rose is the floral emblem and the pearl is the gem.

The faculty sponsor is Mrs. Bea Jacobson, a member of the Physical Education Department.

The meetings are held at school the first and third Thursday of each month.

Acknowledgments

It is manifestly impossible, in a volume of this magnitude, to list all of the people who have contributed their energies and time and their goodwill toward the completion of the project. Consequently, any list which we might make would fall short of being complete. However, we feel that we cannot omit an expression of gratitude to the following: To the Brown's Apparel and Hosiery Shop, Norwood, Ohio, we express our deep appreciation for the clothing and materials loaned us for the colored pictures in the opening section of the book. Many members of our teaching staff also deserve our deepest thanks. For example: Miss Loretta Hartzel, who did the layout work in the advertising section; Mr. Charles Salie, who conducted the advertising sales campaign; Mrs. Bea Jacobson, who was an invaluable aid in setting up and planning many pictures; Mr. John Roman, who contributed heavily in setting up picture schedules and gathering copy for this book; and Mr. Walter Lund, who also contributed much toward getting the copy for this book. Many other members of the faculty and administrative staff also gave time, energy, and cooperation and rightly deserve our thanks.

In addition, we wish to acknowledge and to thank our very splendid group of advertisers who we unreservedly recommend to you as meritorious of your patronage. We thank them for their confidence in us and in our book.

A Memorable Year

• Congratulations to the Student Body and Faculty of Central High School for completion of another outstanding year.

• The Staff of your annual has worked exceedingly hard to give you a superb book and one which portrays the high lights of memorable activities.

• Neither time, effort nor expense have been spared to provide you with a permanent record, attractively presented and complete in every detail.

• To preserve the photography and literary efforts of the Staff, the best grade of materials have been combined with skilled workmanship to provide the finest quality yearbook.

• We are proud that the 1956 Staff elected us to help design, print and bind the "Pendulum." We have earnestly endeavored to fulfill the confidence placed in us.

Ho, hum. Time to retire, folks, see you next spring

To a very sweet fellow of Central
Miss Betty Reader

Lots of Luck! Preston.
To one of the nicest most succeedest boys I know. Risking
you all the success
in the world, because I know you'll make it, because you are so tough. I'm glad you made it, but I'm sorry we couldn't. Love Best Wishes
Alberta
